Subject: SB 62

My name is Bjorn Olson. I am a life-long Alaskan and 14-year-resident of Homer.

I am deeply opposed to drilling for oil and gas, of any type, in Kachemak Bay. Our Critical Habitat status prohibits drilling for oil and gas. As a result of this prohibition, we, the residents of Kachemak Bay, are charmed to live in a nearly-pristine region of the state.

"If there be a human being who is freer than I, then I shall necessarily become his slave. If I am freer than any other, then he will become my slave. Therefore equality is an absolutely necessary condition of freedom."
