FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2022 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

This legislation puts in place victim notification requirements when sex offenders change their name and creates a new crime if an offender fails to file written notification of name change. The bill also permits increased use of hearsay evidence at grand jury and limits the scope of plain error review on appeal.

The Office of Public Advocacy anticipates an increase in litigation related to some of the provisions of this legislation, particularly at the appellate level, but none that would create a significant fiscal impact on the Agency.
