The restriction on purchasing alcoholic beverages applies during the period that the person is required to refrain from consuming alcoholic beverages under the sentence or condition of probation or parole.

* Sec. 2. AS 11.56 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 11.56.730. Failure to appear. (a) A person commits the crime of failure to appear if the person

(2) knows that the person is required to appear before a court or at the time and place of a scheduled hearing; and

(3) with criminal negligence does not appear before the court or at the time and place of the scheduled hearing.

(b) In a prosecution for failure to appear under (a) of this section, it is an affirmative defense that unforeseeable circumstances, outside the person's control, prevented the person from appearing before the court or judicial officer at the time and place of the scheduled hearing, and the person contacted the court orally and in writing immediately upon being able to make the contact.

(c) A person who commits failure to appear incurs a forfeiture of any security for any appearance of the person that was given or pledged to the court for the person's release, and is guilty of a

(1) class C felony if the person was released in connection with a charge of a felony, or while awaiting sentence or appeal after conviction of a felony;

(2) class A misdemeanor if the person was released in connection with

(A) charge of a misdemeanor, or while awaiting sentence or appeal after conviction of a misdemeanor; or

3 (b) In addition to the authority granted by (a) of this section, a peace officer

4 (1) shall make an arrest under the circumstances described in
5 AS 18.65.530;

6 (2) without a warrant may arrest a person if the officer has probable
7 cause to believe the person has, either in or outside the presence of the officer,

8 (A) committed a crime involving domestic violence, whether 9 the crime is a felony or a misdemeanor; in this subparagraph, "crime involving 10 domestic violence" has the meaning given in AS 18.66.990;

11 (B) committed the crime of violating a protective order in 12 violation of AS 11.56.740; or

14 AS 12.30.016(e) [AS 12.30.025] or 12.30.027;

15 (3) without a warrant may arrest a person when the peace officer has 16 probable [REASONABLE] cause for believing that the person has

17 (A) committed a crime under or violated conditions imposed as 18 part of the person's release before trial on misdemeanor charges brought under
19 AS 11.41.270;

20 (B) violated AS 04.16.050 or an ordinance with similar
21 elements; however, unless there is a lawful reason for further detention, a
22 person who is under [THE AGE OF] 18 years of age and who has been 23 arrested for violating AS 04.16.050 or an ordinance with similar elements shall 24 be cited for the offense and released to the person's parent, guardian, or legal 25 custodian; or

26 (C) violated conditions imposed as part of the person's release
27 under the provisions of AS 12.30 [BEFORE TRIAL ON FELONY
28 CHARGES BROUGHT UNDER AS 11.41.410 - 11.41.458].

29 * Sec. 4. AS 12.30 is amended by adding a new section to read:

30 Sec. 12.30.006. Release procedures. (a) At the first appearance before a 31 judicial officer, a person charged with an offense shall be released or detained under

1 the provisions of this chapter.

2 (b) At the first appearance before a judicial officer, a person who is charged
3 with a felony may be detained up to 48 hours for the prosecuting authority to
4 demonstrate that release of the person under AS 12.30.011(a) would not reasonably
5 assure the appearance of the person or will pose a danger to the victim, other persons,
6 or the community.

7 (c) A person who remains in custody 48 hours after appearing before a judicial
8 officer because of inability to meet the conditions of release shall, upon application, be 9 entitled to have the conditions reviewed by the judicial officer who imposed them. If 10 the judicial officer who imposed the conditions of release is not available, any judicial 11 officer in the judicial district may review the conditions.

12 (d) If a person remains in custody after review of conditions by a judicial 13 officer under (c) of this section, the person may request a subsequent review of 14 conditions. Unless the prosecuting authority stipulates otherwise or the person has 15 been incarcerated for a period equal to the maximum sentence for the most serious
16 charge for which the person is being held, a judicial officer may not schedule a bail
17 review hearing under this subsection unless

18 (1) the person provides to the court and the prosecuting authority a 19 written statement that new information not considered at the previous review will be 20 presented at the hearing; the statement must include a description of the information
21 and the reason the information was not presented at a previous hearing; in this
22 paragraph, "new information" does not include the inability to post the required bail;

23 (2) the prosecuting authority and any surety, if applicable, have at least 24 48 hours' written notice before the time set for the review requested under this 25 subsection; the defendant shall notify the surety; and

26 (3) at least seven days have elapsed between the previous review and 27 the time set for the requested review.

28 (e) A judicial officer may solicit comments by the victim or a parent or 29 guardian of a minor victim who is present at the bail review hearing and wishes to 30 comment. The judicial officer shall consider those comments and any response by the 31 person before making a decision concerning the release of the person.

(f) The judicial officer shall issue written or oral findings that explain the reasons the officer imposed the particular conditions of release or modifications or additions to conditions previously imposed. The judicial officer shall inform the person that a law enforcement officer may arrest the person without a warrant for violation of the court's order establishing conditions of release.

(g) Information offered or introduced at a bail hearing to determine conditions of release need not conform to the rules governing the admissibility of evidence.

* Sec. 5. AS 12.30 is amended by adding new sections to read:

Sec. 12.30.011. Release before trial. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a judicial officer shall order a person charged with an offense to be released on the person's personal recognizance or upon execution of an unsecured appearance bond, on the condition that the person

(1) obey all court orders and all federal, state, and local laws;

(2) appear in court when ordered;

(3) if represented, maintain contact with the person's lawyer; and

(4) notify the person's lawyer, who shall notify the prosecuting the court, not more than 24 hours after the person changes residence.

(b) If a judicial officer determines that the release under (a) of this section will not reasonably assure the appearance of the person or will pose a danger to the victim, other persons, or the community, the officer shall impose the least restrictive condition or conditions that will reasonably assure the person's appearance and protect the victim, other persons, and the community. In addition to conditions under (a) of this section, the judicial officer may, singly or in combination,

(1) require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount of cash to be deposited into the registry of the court, in a sum not to exceed 10 percent of the amount of the bond;

(2) require the execution of a bail bond with sufficient solvent sureties or the deposit of cash;

(3) require the execution of a performance bond in a specified amount of cash to be deposited in the registry of the court;

(4) place restrictions on the person's travel, association, or residence;

(5) order the person to refrain from possessing a deadly weapon on the person or in the person's vehicle or residence;

(6) require the person to maintain employment or, if unemployed, actively seek employment;

(7) require the person to notify the person's lawyer and the prosecuting authority within two business days after any change in employment;

(8) require the person to avoid all contact with a victim, a potential witness, or a codefendant;

(9) require the person to refrain from the consumption and possession of alcoholic beverages;

(10) require the person to refrain from the use of a controlled substance as defined by AS 11.71, unless prescribed by a licensed health care provider with prescriptive authority;

(11) require the person to be physically inside the person's residence, or in the residence of the person's third-party custodian, at time periods set by the court;

(12) require the person to keep regular contact with a law enforcement officer or agency;

(13) order the person to refrain from entering or remaining in premises licensed under AS 04;

(14) place the person in the custody of an individual who agrees to serve as a third-party custodian of the person as provided in AS 12.30.021;

(15) if the person is under the treatment of a licensed health care provider, order the person to follow the provider's treatment recommendations;

(16) order the person to take medication that has been prescribed for the person by a licensed health care provider with prescriptive authority;

(17) order the person to comply with any other condition that is reasonably necessary to assure the appearance of the person and to assure the safety of the victim, other persons, and the community.

(c) In determining the conditions of release under this chapter, the court shall consider the following:

- (1) the nature and circumstances of the offense charged;
 - (2) the weight of the evidence against the person;
 - (3) the nature and extent of the person's family ties and relationships;
 - (4) the person's employment status and history;
 - (5) the length and character of the person's past and present residence;
 - (6) the person's record of convictions;
 - (7) the person's record of appearance at court proceedings;
 - (8) assets available to the person to meet monetary conditions of release;
 - (9) the person's reputation, character, and mental condition;
 - (10) the effect of the offense on the victim, any threats made to the victim, and the danger that the person poses to the victim;
 - (11) any other facts that are relevant to the person's appearance or the person's danger to the victim, other persons, or the community.
- (d) In making a finding regarding the release of a person under this chapter,
- (1) except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the burden of proof is on the prosecuting authority that a person charged with an offense should be detained or released with conditions described in (b) of this section or AS 12.30.016;
- (2) there is a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the person or the safety of the victim, other persons, or the community, if the person is
- (A) charged with an unclassified felony, a class A felony, a sexual felony, or a felony under AS 28.35.030 or 28.35.032;
- (B) charged with a felony crime against a person under AS 11.41, was previously convicted of a felony crime against a person under AS 11.41 in this state or a similar offense in another jurisdiction, and less than five years have elapsed between the date of the person's unconditional discharge on the immediately preceding offense and the commission of the present offense;
- (C) charged with a felony offense committed while the person was on release under this chapter for a charge or conviction of another offense;

(D) charged with a crime involving domestic violence, and has been convicted in the previous five years of a crime involving domestic violence in this state or a similar offense in another jurisdiction;

(E) arrested in connection with an accusation that the person committed a felony outside the state or is a fugitive from justice from another jurisdiction, and the court is considering release under AS 12.70.

Sec. 12.30.016. Release before trial in certain cases. (a) A judicial officer may impose, in addition to those required or authorized under AS 12.30.011, conditions of release for offenses described in this section, if necessary to reasonably assure the person's appearance or the safety of the victim, other persons, or the community.

(b) In a prosecution charging a violation of AS 04.11.010, 04.11.499, AS 28.35.030, or 28.35.032, a judicial officer may order the person

(1) to refrain from

(A) consuming alcoholic beverages; or

(B) possessing on the person, in the person's residence, or in any vehicle or other property over which the person has control, alcoholic beverages;

(2) to submit to a search without a warrant of the person, the person's personal property, the person's residence, or any vehicle or other property over which the person has control, for the presence of alcoholic beverages by a peace officer who has reasonable suspicion that the person is violating the conditions of the person's release by possessing alcoholic beverages;

(3) to submit to a breath test when requested by a law enforcement officer;

(4) to provide a sample for a urinalysis or blood test when requested by a law enforcement officer;

(d) In a prosecution charging misconduct involving a controlled substance under AS 11.71.020(a)(2) for the manufacture of methamphetamine, or its salts, isomers, or salts of isomers, if the person has been previously convicted in this or another jurisdiction of a crime involving the manufacturing, delivering, or possessing of methamphetamine, or its salts, isomers, or salts of isomers, a judicial officer shall require the posting of a minimum of $250,000 cash bond before the person may be released. The judicial officer may reduce this requirement if the person proves to the satisfaction of the officer that the person's only role in the offense was as an aider or abettor and that the person did not stand to benefit financially from the manufacturing.
