

CS FOR HOUSE BILL NO. 201(FIN) am S
IN THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA
TWENTY-FIRST LEGISLATURE - FIRST SESSION

BY THE HOUSE FINANCE COMMITTEE

Amended: 5/14/99

Offered: 4/23/99

Sponsor(s): HOUSE LABOR AND COMMERCE COMMITTEE

A BILL
FOR AN ACT ENTITLED

1 "An Act relating to the computation of overtime; and providing for an effective
2 date."

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

4 * Section 1. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS. The legislature finds that
5 (1) some courts in the state have misinterpreted the intent of AS 23.10.060(b)
6 as it read before the effective date of this Act in a manner that may result in employers being
7 obligated to pay excessive overtime compensation; in particular, these courts have interpreted
8 AS 23.10.060(b) so that hours worked in excess of eight hours in a day are counted in order
9 to determine whether overtime is due under the statute's provision requiring payment of 10 overtime for hours worked in excess of 40 hours a week; the courts' interpretation has the 11 unintended result of requiring employers to pay overtime under the statute's provision
12 requiring payment of overtime for hours worked in excess of 40 hours a week under 13 circumstances in which the employee has not yet worked 40 hours at the employee's regular
14 rate of pay;

(2) the intent of this bill is to override the superior court's decision in Hallam v. Holland America Line, Inc., d/b/a Westours Motor Coaches, Inc., 1JU-96-1734 CI, concerning the calculation of overtime wages; the court in that case misinterpreted the intent of AS 23.10.060(b);

(3) AS 23.10.060(b) as it read before the effective date of this Act was not intended to require employers to pay at the overtime rate under the statute's provision requiring payment of overtime for hours worked in excess of 40 hours a week unless and until employees had first worked 40 hours at the regular rate of pay; and

(4) although the legislature believes that AS 23.10.060(b) should not have been interpreted by the courts in a manner inconsistent with the finding in (3) of this section, the legislature further finds that it is necessary to amend AS 23.10.060(b) in order to eliminate any doubt on this subject.

 Sec. 2. AS 23.10.060(b) is repealed and reenacted to read:

(b) If an employer finds it necessary to employ an employee for hours in excess of the limits set in this subsection, overtime compensation for the overtime at the rate of one and one-half times the regular rate of pay shall be paid. An employee is entitled to overtime compensation for hours worked in excess of eight hours a day. An employee is also entitled to overtime compensation for hours worked in excess of 40 hours a week; in determining whether an employee has worked more than 40 hours a week, the number of hours worked shall be determined without including hours that are worked in excess of eight hours in a day because the employee has or will be separately awarded overtime compensation based on those hours.

 Sec. 3. This Act takes effect immediately under AS 01.10.070(c).
