AN ACT

Relating to certain suits and claims by members of the military services; relating to certain suits and claims regarding acts or omissions of the organized militia; relating to workers' compensation and death benefits for members of the organized militia; relating to liability arising out of certain search and rescue, civil defense, fire management, and fire fighting activities.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

AN ACT

Relating to certain suits and claims by members of the military services; relating to certain

2 suits and claims regarding acts or omissions of the organized militia; relating to workers' 3 compensation and death benefits for members of the organized militia; relating to liability 4 arising out of certain search and rescue, civil defense, fire management, and fire fighting 5 activities. 6 7 * Section 1. The uncodified law of the State of Alaska is amended by adding a new section 8 to read: 9 PURPOSE. The purpose of secs. 3 - 6 of this Act is to 10 (1) provide the State of Alaska and state military and other personnel, through 11 the immunity provided in this Act, with the same protection from civil actions for damages 12 that the federal government and federal military personnel are provided under federal case law 13 and statute, except for civil damages resulting from intentional misconduct within the course

-1-

- and scope of employment or agency and with complete disregard for the safety and property of others;
 - (2) ensure that military service decisions are based on the judgment and needs of the militia rather than on concerns for possible tort exposure;
 - (3) recognize that injured military service members or their families are entitled to various federal military and veterans' benefits for injuries or death occurring in the course of the member's military service for the Alaska National Guard while not on state active duty;
 - (4) recognize that the federal government and not the State of Alaska is responsible for providing benefits to injured military service members or their families for injuries or death occurring in the course of the member's military service for the Alaska National Guard while not on state active duty; and
 - (5) recognize that the federal government and not the State of Alaska is responsible for property damage, injuries, or death, resulting from the acts or omissions of members of the Alaska National Guard who are under the command of the federal government.
 - * Sec. 2. AS 18.60 is amended by adding a new section to read:
 - Sec. 18.60.125. Civil immunity. A person may not bring a civil action for damages against the state, a political subdivision of the state, or the officers, agents, or employees of the state or a political subdivision of the state for a death, personal injury, or property damage that results from an act or omission in performing or failing to perform activities or duties authorized under AS 18.60.120 18.60.175. This section does not apply to a civil action for damages as a result of intentional misconduct within the course and scope of employment or agency and with complete disregard for the safety and property of others.
 - * Sec. 3. AS 26.05.140 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:
 - (b) The state has not waived its sovereign immunity and is not liable for the acts or omissions of members of the organized militia, unless those members were ordered into active state service by the governor under AS 26.05.070 and the members were acting in the line of duty of those orders. This subsection does not apply to a civil action for damages as a result of intentional misconduct within the course and scope of employment or agency and with complete disregard for the safety and property of others.

* Sec. 4. AS 26.05 is amended by adding a new section to read:

- Sec. 26.05.145. Suits by members of the military services. (a) A civil action for damages may not be brought by or on behalf of a member of the military services against the state or against any employee of the state or any member or former member of the Alaska militia for wrongful death, personal injury, or other tort claim or injury arising out of activities that were incident to the member's military service.
- (b) In this section, "military service" means service in the United States military, the militia described in AS 26.05.010(b), or the national guard of another state.
- (c) This section does not apply to a civil action for damages as a result of intentional misconduct within the course and scope of employment or agency and with complete disregard for the safety and property of others.
- * Sec. 5. AS 26.05.260(d) is amended to read:
 - (d) A member of the organized militia who, while performing duties under AS 26.05.070, including transit to and from the member's home of record, suffers an injury or disability in the line of duty is entitled to all compensation and benefits available under AS 23.30 (Alaska Workers' Compensation Act). For a member of the Alaska State Defense Force, compensation and benefits under this subsection are provided as though the member were a state employee. A member of the organized militia who has not been ordered into active state service by the governor under AS 26.05.070 is not entitled to compensation and benefits under AS 23.30 (Alaska Workers' Compensation Act).
- * Sec. 6. AS 26.05.260(e) is amended to read:
 - (e) If a member of the organized militia dies as a result of an injury or disability suffered in the line of duty while performing duties under AS 26.05.070, including transit to and from the member's home of record, death benefits shall be paid to the persons in the amounts specified in AS 23.30.215. For a member of the Alaska State Defense Force, the death benefits under this subsection are provided as though the member were a state employee. A person is not entitled to death benefits as specified in AS 23.30.215 for a member of the organized militia who dies as a result of an injury or disability suffered in the line of duty but who had not been ordered into active state service by the governor under AS 26.05.070.

* Sec. 7. AS 26.20.140 is amended to read:

Sec. 26.20.140. Immunity of government, [AND] employees, and authorized volunteers or other persons. (a) The [NEITHER THE] state, a [NOR ANY] district of the state, and [NOR] the employees, agents, or representatives of the state or district are not [, IS] liable for personal injury or property damage sustained by any person appointed or acting as a [VOLUNTEER] civilian defense worker. This provision does not affect the right of a person to receive benefits or compensation to which the person might otherwise be entitled under the workers' compensation law or a pension law or an Act of Congress.

- (b) The [NEITHER THE] state, a [NOR] district [PERSONNEL] of the state, an employee, agent, or representative [NOR, EXCEPT IN CASES OF WILFUL MISCONDUCT, GROSS NEGLIGENCE, OR BAD FAITH, THE EMPLOYEES, AGENTS, OR REPRESENTATIVES] of the state or a district, or [NOR] a volunteer or auxiliary civilian defense worker or member of an agency engaged in civilian defense activity, complying with or reasonably attempting to comply with this chapter [,] or an order or regulation adopted under this chapter, or under an ordinance relating to blackout or other precautionary measures enacted by a district director of the state, is not liable for the death of or injury to persons, or for damage to property, as a result of the activity.
- * Sec. 8. AS 26.20.140 is amended by adding new subsections to read:
 - (c) This section does not apply to a civil action for damages as a result of intentional misconduct within the course and scope of employment or agency and with complete disregard for the safety and property of others.
 - (d) In this section, "civilian defense worker" means a worker engaged in a civil defense activity in an official capacity or at the direction of the state, including
 - (1) an officer or employee of the state, a municipality or other political subdivision of the state, or a governmental instrumentality of the state;

1	(2) a member of a board, commission, or task force created by statute
2	or by legislative, judicial, or administrative action by the state, a municipality or other
3	political subdivision of the state, or a governmental instrumentality of the state;
4	(3) a contractor to the state, a municipality or other political
5	subdivision of the state, or a governmental instrumentality of the state, or an officer or
6	employee of the contractor;
7	(4) an officer or a member of the state's organized militia on active
8	state service under AS 26.05.070;
9	(5) an officer or employee of another state; and
10	(6) a volunteer authorized by the state, a municipality or other political
11	subdivision of the state, or a federal agency to engage in a civil defense activity.
12	* Sec. 9. AS 26.20.200(1) is amended to read:
13	(1) "civil defense" means the protection and defense of the civilian
14	population by the organized efforts of the residents of the state other than those in the
15	military service, and includes without limitation, fire fighting, policing, rescue, air raid
16	warning, security, communications, medical service, vaccination and other actions
17	to protect public health, transportation, evacuation of persons, welfare aid, guard
18	duty, anti-espionage and anti-sabotage service, construction of temporary housing and
19	bomb proof shelters, [AND] any other service necessary for the protection of and aid
20	to the public not normally furnished by the military services, and training,
21	preparation, travel, and other activities necessary for the provision of the services
22	described in this paragraph;
23	* Sec. 10. AS 26.23.210 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:
24	(c) The provisions of AS 26.20.140, providing for immunity of government,
25	employees, and other authorized persons in certain circumstances, apply when the
26	entities or persons covered by AS 26.20.140 perform duties under AS 26.23.010 -
27	26.23.220, except as otherwise provided in AS 26.23.136 for entities or other persons
28	providing assistance to the state under a compact in a form substantially as contained
29	in AS 26.23.136.
30	* Sec. 11. AS 41.15 is amended by adding a new section to read:
31	Sec. 41.15.045. Civil immunity. (a) Notwithstanding other provisions of

1	law, a person may not bring a civil action for damages for death, personal injury, or
2	property damage that results from an act or omission in performing or failing to
3	perform activities or duties arising out of prevention, monitoring, control, or
4	suppression of fires authorized to be performed under AS 41.15.010 - 41.15.170
5	against
6	(1) the state or its officers, agents, and employees;
7	(2) a political subdivision of the state or its officers, agents, and
8	employees;
9	(3) any organization authorized to prevent, control, or suppress fires;
10	or
11	(4) others assisting in the control or suppression of fires at the request
12	of an officer or employee of the United States or the state.
13	(b) This section does not apply to a civil action for damages as a result of
14	intentional misconduct within the course and scope of employment or agency and with
15	complete disregard for the safety and property of others.
