17 (Acknowledgment)

18 (f) A reconveyance of a trust deed, when executed and acknowledged in 19 substantially the form prescribed in (e) of this section, may be recorded and, when 20 recorded, constitutes a reconveyance of the trust deed identified in the reconveyance, 21 regardless of any deficiency in the reconveyance procedure that is not disclosed in the 22 recorded reconveyance, except for forgery of the title insurance company's signature.
23 The reconveyance of a trust deed under this section does not discharge a personal 24 obligation that was secured by the trust deed at the time of its reconveyance.

25 (g) A person who wants to receive a copy of a notice given under (b) of this 26 section after the deed of trust is recorded and before the reconveyance is recorded 27 under (d) of this section may record a request for a copy of the notice in the office of 28 the recorder in the judicial district in which a part of the real property is located. The 29 request must be acknowledged, must state the name and address of the person 30 requesting the copy of the notice, and must identify the deed of trust by stating the 31 names of the parties to the deed of trust, the date of recordation, and the serial number

1 or book and page numbers where the deed of trust is recorded.

2 (h) If, at any point during the procedure required by this section, the 3 beneficiary requests the title insurance company to reconvey the trust deed, the title
4 insurance company is not required to proceed with the rest of the procedure required
5 by this section and may execute and record a reconveyance of the trust deed.

6 (i) Except as provided in (a) and (h) of this section, if a title insurance 7 company reconveys a trust deed without having satisfactory evidence of payment in 8 full required under (b) of this section or without providing the prior notice to the 9 beneficiary and the servicer as required under this section, the title insurance company 10 is liable to the beneficiary and to the heirs, successors in interest, representatives, and 11 assigns of the beneficiary for all damages occasioned by the neglect or the wilful act, 12 and the title insurance company is liable to the state for a penalty of $300.

13 (j) In this section,

14 (1) "beneficiary" means both the record owner of the beneficiary's
15 interest under a trust deed and a successor in interest;

16 (2) "satisfactory evidence of payment in full," with regard to an 17 obligation secured by a trust deed or an encumbrance on the property covered by the 18 trust deed, means a payoff letter, or, along with reasonable documentary evidence that 19 the check was intended to effect full payment,

20 (A) the original cancelled check; or

21 (B) a copy, including a voucher copy, of a check, payable to 22 the beneficiary or a servicer;

23 (3) "servicer" means a person who handles, for a beneficiary of a trust 24 deed, the receipt of the beneficiary's payments under the trust deed;

25 (4) "title insurance company" means a title insurance company or a 26 title insurance limited producer; in this paragraph, "title insurance company" and "title
