Senate
Resolve No.
2

Recognizing February 6, 2004, as Ronald Reagan Day in Alaska.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE:

WHEREAS Ronald Wilson Reagan, a man of humble background, worked throughout his life serving freedom and advancing the public good, having been employed as an entertainer, union leader, corporate spokesman, Governor of California, and President of the United States; and

WHEREAS Ronald Reagan served with honor and distinction for two terms as the 40th President of the United States, in the second of which he earned the confidence of 3/5 of the electorate and was victorious in 49 of the 50 states in the general election, a record unsurpassed in the history of American presidential elections; and

WHEREAS, in 1981, when Ronald Reagan was inaugurated as President, he inherited a disillusioned nation shackled by rampant inflation and high unemployment; and

WHEREAS, during Mr. Reagan's presidency, he worked in a bipartisan manner to enact his bold agenda of restoring accountability and common sense to government, which led to an unprecedented economic expansion and opportunity for millions of Americans; and

WHEREAS Mr. Reagan's commitment to an active social policy agenda for the nation's children helped lower crime and drug use in our neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS Mr. Reagan's commitment to our armed forces contributed to the restoration of pride in America and its values and prepared America's armed forces to meet 21st Century challenges; and

WHEREAS Mr. Reagan's vision of "peace through strength" led to the end of the Cold War and the ultimate demise of the Soviet Union, guaranteeing basic human rights for millions of people; and

WHEREAS, on February 6, 2004, Ronald Reagan will have reached the age of 93 years;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Alaska State Senate recognizes February 6, 2004, as Ronald Reagan Day in Alaska.
