Relating to the National Day of Prayer.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE:

WHEREAS May 6, 2004, is established by AS 44.12.072 as the Alaska Day of Prayer; and

WHEREAS President George W. Bush, Governor Frank Murkowski, and all of the other governors have proclaimed May 6, 2004, the 53rd annual National Day of Prayer; and

WHEREAS the National Day of Prayer stands as a call to us to humbly come before God, seeking His guidance, and enables us to recall and to teach the way in which our founding fathers sought the wisdom of God when faced with critical decisions; and

WHEREAS this year's theme is "Let Freedom Ring" and is based on Leviticus 25:10, ". . . proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants";

BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate recognizes May 6, 2004, as the Alaska Day of Prayer and the National Day of Prayer; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that the National Day of Prayer be a statement of thankfulness for the individual freedoms we enjoy, under God, in the State of Alaska and in the United States of America; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that everyone is invited to attend a program on the Capitol steps sponsored by the churches in the Juneau community at noon on Thursday, May 6, 2004.
