SCR 201

Legislative Resolve No.
59

Authorizing the Senate or the House of Representatives to recess for periods longer than three days during special sessions.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

WHEREAS art. II, sec. 10, Constitution of the State of Alaska, provides that neither house may adjourn or recess for longer than three days unless the other house concurs; and

WHEREAS Rule 52, Uniform Rules of the Alaska State Legislature, provides that adoption of a concurrent resolution by a majority vote of the full membership of each house constitutes concurrence;

BE IT RESOLVED by the Alaska State Legislature that, during any special session of the Twenty-Fourth Alaska State Legislature that is convened after the Second Regular Session, the Senate or the House of Representatives may be in recess for one or more periods longer than three days, as independently determined by that house; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that, under art. II, sec. 10, Constitution of the State of Alaska, each house concurs in each recess by the other during any special session of the Twenty-Fourth Alaska State Legislature that is convened after the Second Regular Session.
