Designating 2009 as the Year of the Noncommissioned Officer Corps of the United States Army.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

WHEREAS the Secretary of the Army has designated 2009 as the Year of the United States Army Noncommissioned Officer to honor more than 200 years of service by the noncommissioned officers to the Army and the American people; and

WHEREAS the United States Army's professional Noncommissioned Officer Corps has a proud history and has distinguished itself throughout the world as the backbone of the Army by leading the way with two tasks in mind: obeying the orders of the Corps' superior officers to accomplish the mission and looking out for the welfare of the Corps' soldiers; and

WHEREAS noncommissioned officers in the Corps occupy a position of respect and leadership and have performed fundamental tasks, such as serving as small unit leaders, technical experts, trainers, and, perhaps most importantly, guardians of the Army's standards; and

WHEREAS every officer fresh from basic training remembers the officer's first noncommissioned officer leader, because it is these great leaders that help finish the rudimentary training with which every officer comes into the service; and

WHEREAS the United States Army depends on the knowledge and timeless qualities of leadership and courage that those dedicated men and women possess, assigning them to lead the charge from the front on today's battlefields in Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation Enduring Freedom in Afghanistan and the Philippines, and in other locations throughout the world; and

WHEREAS noncommissioned officers and their families have made daily sacrifices and exemplified courage and a deep sense of patriotism in their commitment to providing continual and invaluable service to our state and to this great nation and have demonstrated their dedication and willingness to sacrifice on behalf of their fellow Americans; and

WHEREAS the Noncommissioned Officer Corps of the United States Army has faced danger, endured hardships, and made the ultimate sacrifice to defend our nation's freedoms; and

WHEREAS the Noncommissioned Officer Corps of the United States Army is unrivaled by any other army in the world, envied by our allies, and, feared by our enemies, and, throughout the Army's history, the Noncommissioned Officer Corps has been pivotal, but never more so than today, with our full spectrum of operations;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature designates 2009 as the Year of the Noncommissioned Officer Corps of the United States Army; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature encourages the people of the United States to recognize 2009 as the Year of the Noncommissioned Officer Corps of the United States Army with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

COPIES of this resolution shall be sent to the Honorable Pete Geren, United States Secretary of the Army; General George W. Casey, Jr., Chief of Staff of the United States Army; the Honorable Sarah Palin, Governor of Alaska; and the Honorable Lisa Murkowski and the Honorable Mark Begich, U.S. Senators, and the Honorable Don Young, U.S. Representative, members of the Alaska delegation in Congress.
