THE WILLIAM BELTZ COMMITTEE ROOM

The William Beltz Committee Room memorializes the dedication of William Beltz in serving the Territory and State of Alaska. William Beltz was born in Bear Creek, Alaska, in 1912. He served in the territorial House of Representatives from 1949 to 1950, in the territorial Senate from 1951 to 1958, and in the state Senate from 1959 to 1960, where he served as the first President of the state Senate. He was a carpenter and, in 1955, was elected President of the Alaska Council of Carpenters. A Native Alaskan, he felt a need for formal educational institutions in rural areas of Alaska. In recognition of his efforts to promote education in the state, a regional high school in Nome, the first of its kind in northern Alaska, was named the William E. Beltz High School.
