Recognizing, honoring, supporting, and encouraging support for dog mushing and dog mushers in the state.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

WHEREAS dog mushing is the official sport of the state, and both Native and non-Native persons participate in the sport; and

WHEREAS persons who engage in dog mushing help to preserve the culture and tradition of dog mushing, which has been practiced in the state for thousands of years; and

WHEREAS dog mushing is an important thread in the fabric of life in this state and is an important part of the spiritual well-being and cultural identity of the state; and

WHEREAS dog mushing is not only a sport but also a way of life, with roots in ancient times when humans first bonded with animals; and

WHEREAS, before mechanized means of transportation arrived in the state, the relationship between humans and animals enabled residents of the state to populate the state and to live, hunt, and thrive in the state; and

WHEREAS organizations such as People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals want to eliminate the sport of dog mushing and the dog mushing way of life and have asked people not to patronize companies that sponsor dog mushing or tours that include dog mushing; and

WHEREAS dog mushing races attract millions of fans and tourists from around the world and contribute to the economies of the state and communities in the state; and

WHEREAS dog mushing contributes to the state's image as the last frontier and provides excitement and purpose locally; and

WHEREAS dog mushing, whether in races or for recreation, contributes to the pride, spirit, physical well-being, and cultural identity of fans and dog mushers alike; and

WHEREAS dog mushers who treat their dogs humanely and maintain humane dog kennels need the support of the people of the state so they can preserve the tradition and culture of dog mushing for future generations;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature recognizes this state as a "right to mush" state and recognizes the practice of dog mushing to be a part of the past, present, and future culture of the state; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature honors the grit and tenacity of dog mushers who brave miles of open wild country in harsh weather conditions; and be it

FURTHER RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature supports dog mushing in the state and encourages the people of the state to support dog mushers so they can preserve the tradition and culture of dog mushing for future generations.
