ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE -- FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Tuesday

May 8, 2001

One Hundred Twenty-first Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Porter at 10:13 a.m.

Roll call showed 37 members present. Representatives Masek, Mulder, and Williams were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain Designee, Representative McGuire. Representative Davies moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it appears below:

Heavenly Father, on this, the last day of session, I ask You to bless these men and women who govern in the State of Alaska. Put Your wisdom and truth into our hearts and minds. Place in each one of us a love for our fellow man that will allow us to govern with kindness and true justice for all. Where there has been strife, bring peace. Where there has been disagreement, impart Your wisdom and bring us compromise that will serve the needs of every Alaskan. I pray that Your will and Your love will prevail throughout all our deliberations and debate. Please empower us as guardians of this state to provide a rich future for this great land so that our children may be afforded the same opportunities that we have had. As we close out this session, let us be thankful to our families, our staff, and our neighbors who have stood beside us and helped us to be better lawmakers. Let us remember to pause and reflect on the good work we have all done this session, and to give us the strength as we move through these final hours with respect for our colleagues even in the face of disagreement. Let there be a spirit of unity and cooperation in this room, and in these halls, and may that spirit be rooted in the truth. In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Scalzi.
