

HOUSE JOURNAL

ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE -- SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

May 10, 2002

One Hundred Seventeenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Porter at 10:08 a.m.

Roll call showed 31 members present. Representatives Guess, Hudson, Kerttula, Kott, Masek, Moses, Mulder, Williams, and Wilson were absent and their presence was noted later.

Representative James moved and asked unanimous consent that Representative Hayes be excused from a call of the House from 11:00 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. today. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by Mr. O. P. Sharma. Representative Bunde moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Mr. Speaker, Representatives, and all present here, it is an honor and pleasure for me to share with you the thoughts of the great Philosopher-Saint, Sri Aurobindo, who has written: "The Divine Love, unlike the human, is deep and vast and silent; one must become quiet and wide to be aware of it and reply to it. He must make it his whole object to be surrendered so that he may become a vessel and instrument--leaving it to the Divine Wisdom and Love to fill him with what is needed. The more one gives oneself, the more the power to receive will grow."

I now read the invocation of The Mother, a transcendent, cosmic personality and lifetime collaborator with Sri Aurobindo in his Divinely Ordained Work: "It is the Divine Presence that gives value to life. This Presence is the source of all peace, all joy, all security. Find this Presence in yourself and all your difficulties will disappear. Lord, it is thy Peace we would have and not a vain simulacrum of peace, Thy Freedom and not a simulacrum of freedom, Thy Unity and not a simulacrum of unity. For it is only Thy Peace, Thy Freedom, and Thy Unity that can triumph over the blind violence and the hypocrisy and falsehood that still reign upon earth. Grant that those who so valiantly struggled and suffered for Thy Victory may see the true and genuine results of that Victory realized in the world." God bless you all. God bless America.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Ogan.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative James moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 116th legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

CONSIDERATION OF THE DAILY CALENDAR

SECOND READING OF HOUSE BILLS

HB 519

The Speaker stated that, without objection, the following, which was on the May 7, 2002, calendar and returned to the Rules Committee (page 3423), would be moved to the bottom of the calendar:

HOUSE BILL NO. 519

"An Act authorizing priority treatment under the Right-of-Way Leasing Act for an Alaska North Slope natural gas project; expanding the scope for the kinds of gas development projects that may become qualified projects under the Alaska Stranded Gas Development Act; extending the deadline for submitting applications under the Alaska Stranded Gas Development Act; exempting an Alaska North Slope natural gas project from state property tax and all municipal taxes during construction; and providing for an effective date."

SECOND READING OF SENATE BILLS

SB 37

The following was read the second time:

CS FOR SENATE BILL NO. 37(FIN)

"An Act relating to collective negotiation by competing physicians with health benefit plans, to health benefit plan contracts, to the application of antitrust laws to agreements involving providers and groups of providers affected by collective negotiations, and to the effect of the collective negotiation provisions on health care providers."

(same title)

There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The presence of Representative Kerttula was noted.

Amendment No. 1 was offered by Representative Halcro:

Page 1, following line 5:

Insert a new bill section to read:

 Section 1. AS 21.42 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 21.42.410. Coverage for contraceptives. (a) Except with respect to limited benefit health care insurance or health care insurance purchased by a religious employer, a health care insurer that offers, issues for delivery, delivers, or renews in this state a health care insurance plan that provides coverage for prescription drugs on an outpatient basis shall provide coverage for any prescribed drug or device approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration for use as a contraceptive. The coverage required under this section is subject to standard policy provisions applicable to other benefits, including deductible or copayment provisions, within the constraints of (b) of this section.

(b) An insurer may not impose on a person receiving prescription contraceptive benefits a

(1) copayment, coinsurance payment, or fee that is not equally imposed on all individuals in the same benefit category, class, coinsurance level, or copayment level receiving benefits for prescription drugs; or

(2) reduction in allowable reimbursement for prescription drug benefits.

(c) This section may not be construed to

(1) require coverage for prescription coverage benefits in a contract, policy, or plan that does not otherwise provide coverage for prescription drugs;

(2) preclude the use of closed formularies if the formularies include oral, implant, and injectable contraceptive drugs, intrauterine devices, and prescription barrier methods;

(3) require an insurer to provide coverage for abortion;

(4) require an insurer to provide coverage for emergency contraception.

(d) A health care insurance plan that, under (a) of this section, is exempt from providing coverage for contraceptives must contain a written notice that prescription contraceptives are not included under the policy.

(e) In this section,

(1) "limited benefit health care insurance" means accident and sickness insurance designed, advertised, and marketed to supplement major medical insurance, including accident only, Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS) supplement, dental, disability income, fixed indemnity, long-term care, Medicare supplement, specific disease, vision, and other accident and sickness insurance other than basic hospital expense, basic medical-surgical expense, or major medical insurance;

(2) "religious employer" means an employer

(A) with a primary purpose of instilling religious principles;

(B) that primarily employs individuals who share the religious principles of the employer;

(C) that primarily serves individuals who share the employer's religious principles; and
(D) that does not receive public funding."
