TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE -- SECOND SESSION

Saturday

May 11, 2002

One Hundred Eighteenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Porter at 12:13 p.m.

Roll call showed 29 members present. Representatives Crawford, Croft, Davies, Guess, Hayes, Joule, Kapsner, Kerttula, Kookesh, Moses, and Mulder were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by Chaplain Designee, Representative Coghill. Representative Green moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Our Father in Heaven,

We bow today with grateful hearts, with ready minds, and with eagerness to work, knowing full well that we are dependent on You for grace in our health and our abilities. So, we bow here to ask for help to speak wisely and grace to hear one another in our deliberations.

Our hearts are grateful because of this time in history that You have given us to live in, the government and its processes to deal with, and the personal liberty we have inherited to both enjoy and protect. Our minds are ready to work collectively with the awareness that we need wisdom from above to guide us. We endeavor to think with openness, to be challenged or refreshed, and taught by our fellow legislators. We acknowledge the beauty of Your creation and the greatness of the people in this land and wonder at the spirit in us to live free. We thank You for those who have trusted us to this position.

We are thankful for the richness brought into our lives through those we have worked with during this session. And we are grateful for the leadership we have enjoyed. We offer thanks in answering prayer for our friend and colleague, Scott Ogan, in his time of need. So, now we turn to the work today with the desire for Your guidance and we ask for Your blessing on us, our state, and our country. In Jesus' name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative McGuire.
