Good Morning Lord. Thank You for the rain and the refreshment it gives to the land. Thank You for another day to serve the peoples of our communities.

As we come to these last few days of this session there are many problems that face us Lord, but I thank You that as we look to You, we can know that each Senator here has been matched to this hour. May each of them resolve, with Your helping, to be part of the answer and not part of the problem.
