

HOUSE JOURNAL

ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-THIRD LEGISLATURE -- FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

May 9, 2003

One Hundred Ninth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Kott at 11:19 a.m.

Roll call showed 35 members present. Representatives Croft, Joule, and Kapsner had been previously excused from a call of the House today. Representatives Guttenberg and Kerttula were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Robert Sherwood of Church of the Nazarene. Representative Stoltze moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Let us pray. Might the beauty of this day be mirrored in the hearts of these assembled men and women. May the Holy Spirit cause each day these hearts to radiate light and love. May these words of the prophet be true for these Your children:

"But those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint." Isaiah 40:31

Protect these Your elected officials and staff from gossip, slander, and dysfunction in order that they may discharge their duties with integrity. May they move through their days with compassion, recalling the words of the songwriter: "In heaven's eyes there are no losers, in heaven's eyes no hopeless cause. Only people like you and people like me, who stand amazed at the grace we can find in heaven's eyes."

Be with Reggie Joule, Mary Kapsner, and Eric Croft in successful recovery. God bless you and God bless and protect Alaska. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Morgan.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 108th legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Representative Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that the following member be excused from a call of the House. There being no objection, the member was excused as noted:

Representative Fate - from tonight to evening plane time, May 11, 2003

The Speaker stated that, without objection, the House would revert to:

INTRODUCTION, FIRST READING, AND REFERENCE OF HOUSE BILLS

HB 314

HOUSE BILL NO. 314 by Representative Cissna, entitled:

"An Act relating to pesticide use; relating to program receipts collected by the Department of Environmental Conservation for registrations and licenses relating to pesticides; and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the Labor & Commerce and Resources Committees.

HB 315

HOUSE BILL NO. 315 by the House Rules Committee by request of the Governor, entitled:

"An Act relating to international airports revenue bonds; and providing for an effective date."

was read the first time and referred to the Transportation and Finance Committees.

The following fiscal note(s) apply:

1. Fiscal, Dept. of Revenue

The Governor's transmittal letter dated May 9, 2003, follows:

"Dear Speaker Kott:

Under the authority of art. III, sec. 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to bond funding of capital improvements for the Alaska International Airports System.

The bill increases the cumulative authorization for international airports revenue bonds, allowing the sale of up to $76,600,000 in new revenue bonds to support capital improvement programs for FY 04 through FY 06 at the Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport and Fairbanks International Airport, referred to collectively as the Alaska International Airports System (AIAS), and certain passenger terminal renovation work at the Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport.

Funding for operations and capital improvements of the AIAS is obtained from charges for the use of airport facilities, primarily paid by commercial airlines. The AIAS and the airlines that are signatories to the International Airports System Operating Agreement have agreed to a capital improvement program approved by the signatory airline ratepayers under the operating agreement. Under the operating agreement, effective from September 1, 2001 through June 30, 2006, the AIAS has shifted from cash funding long-term projects in advance through annual capital charges paid by the airlines through rates and fees, to revenue bond funding for most projects. Revenue bond funding allows annual debt service to be paid through airline rates and fees spread over longer periods of time, such as the useful life of airport projects. The bonds are not a general obligation of the state, and the state does not pledge its faith and credit to the payment of the bonds. The issuance of the bonds does not directly or indirectly or contingently obligate the state or any political subdivision thereof to apply money from, or levy or pledge, any form of taxation whatever to the payment of the bonds.

Additional bond authorization under AS 37.15.410 was granted in 2001 to implement the capital improvement program for the first two years of the Operating Agreement. Additional bond authorization is now required to finance the continuation of the capital improvement program. AS 37.15.410 currently authorizes the state to issue up to $447,900,000 of revenue bonds to support airport projects. This authority, cumulative since the inception of AS 37.15.410, will be exhausted by June 30, 2003, with outstanding bond principal standing at $368,200,000.

The authority sought in this bill would increase the bond authorization limit to finance three more years of capital improvements at both the Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport and Fairbanks International Airport, as well as completion costs of the redevelopment of Concourse C at the Ted Stevens Anchorage International Airport passenger terminal. By covering these needs in a single new bond issue, the state would be able to reduce costs related to the debt issuance.

The Alaska International Airports System is an increasingly vital and growing part of our economic engine. The airports system and the state's major air carriers propose to continue developing our world-class international airports through the implementation of the International Airports Operating Agreement, supported by the issuance of these additional revenue bonds. In order to assure timely project development, I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,
/s/
Frank H. Murkowski
Governor"

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

HB 157

The State Affairs Committee submitted the following forthcoming CS to accompany their report (page 1474):

CS FOR HOUSE BILL NO. 157(STA)

"An Act authorizing the Alaska Public Offices Commission to issue advisory opinions; amending campaign financial disclosure requirements; amending the definition of 'administrative action' and 'lobbyist'; amending limits on campaign contributions from nonresident individuals; providing for electronic filing of certain documents with the Alaska Public Offices Commission; amending the notice provision when a candidate makes a loan to the candidate's own campaign; amending provisions governing the distribution of unused campaign contributions; providing for expedited consideration of, and modifying procedures for determining, violations of state election campaign laws; amending the time period within which to file an administrative complaint of a violation of state election campaign laws; amending the definition of 'political party' for state election campaigns; amending the requirements for the reporting of financial interests by public officials; repealing the prohibition on campaign contribution solicitations and acceptances while the legislature is in session and in the capital city; repealing the requirement for civic leagues and organizations to report contributions to influence legislative action; making conforming amendments; and providing for an effective date."

HB 157 is in the Finance Committee.

HB 312

The forthcoming Governor's transmittal letter dated May 8, 2003, (page 1477) was received for the following:

HOUSE BILL NO. 312

"An Act giving notice of and approving the entry into and the issuance of certificates of participation for a lease-purchase agreement for a seafood and food safety laboratory facility; relating to the use of certain investment income for certain construction costs; and providing for an effective date."

"Dear Speaker Kott:

Under the authority of art. III, sec. 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to issuing certificates of participation to fund a new seafood and food safety laboratory.

The state's food safety laboratory plays a vital role in protecting the health of Alaskans. The seafood and food safety laboratory tests crabs, geoducks, and other shellfish for toxins, a service not offered in the private sector. Local dairy products must be tested by a state laboratory before they can be sold to schools and the military. Federal law also requires a state laboratory to certify private laboratories to perform drinking water compliance testing for public water systems. Additionally, the new laboratory will have an area designated as bio safety level III for testing of anthrax or other bio-terrorism agents. The new laboratory would not duplicate existing laboratories in the state.

The current lease will soon expire, requiring the facility to be relocated. Building a state-owned facility is cheaper than leasing a privately-owned facility, and the state owns a parcel of land ready for development. The Alaska State Legislature has recognized the need for replacement through previous planning and design appropriations. The bill I transmit today is the next and final step in providing Alaskans with a worthwhile facility by setting up a bonding structure for its construction. The proposed method is the issuance of certificates of participation for a lease-purchase agreement.

In the interests of public health for Alaskans and consumers of Alaskan food, fish and dairy products, as well as the economic health of these industries, I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,
/s/
Frank H. Murkowski
Governor"
