Dear Lord,

Today we need Your strength. It seems that sometimes the wells of our resources run dry. And we need the strength You offer to us to fill up some of those diminishing reserves. You are the one who can provide the ability to think clearly and to act decisively. And bless the Representatives today as they trust You.

Give us the power to remove some of those mountainous difficulties that often divide us. Turn those mountains into sand hills as we put our faith and trust in You. Guide us to resolve our present concerns. Bring us together in unity. We know that nothing is impossible to You, and Lord, today we need You. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Gruenberg.
