We have a lot to be thankful for.

Father God, today as we gather, I would like to acknowledge a few of the many blessings You have bestowed upon us:

Our freedoms.

Our families.

Our rich diversity.

Our state and all of its richness and beauties.

Our faith and the diversity of that faith, the many ways to acknowledge You as being supreme.

Our ability to have and to create hope.
Our ability to love and bring together all that is good.
And finally, Father God, thank You for the blessings of friends and good health.

We ask this for today and the many tomorrows. Amen.
