One Hundred Thirteenth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Stevens at 11:22 a.m.

The roll showed eighteen members present. Senator Bunde was excused from a call of the Senate. Senator Guess was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Senator Seekins. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Father, We thank You for being with us this morning. We ask a special blessing this morning on the members – particularly the family members of those who are ill – that You will touch their bodies and help them through these times of trial.

And for ourselves Father, we ask that we be granted wisdom, understanding, strength and compassion. And that even in the heat of the moment that we remember Your admonition that we treat each other as we would ourselves be treated.

So we pray Father, that You will be with us through the remaining days of the session and as we go home. And give us that wisdom, understanding, strength and compassion.

In Jesus' name I pray,

Amen.

Senator Elton led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
