

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE

SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

March 31, 2006

Eighty-second Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Stevens at 11:14 a.m.

The roll showed nineteen members present. Senator Wagoner was excused from a call of the Senate.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, The Reverend Mark Boesser of the Episcopal Church. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

The story goes that an elderly Arab died and left his estate to his three sons: one-half to the eldest, one-third to the middle son and one-ninth to the youngest. The trouble was: the total inheritance amounted to seventeen camels and when the family tried to divvy things up, they found that seventeen could not be divided by two or three or nine. So, what to do? "Not to worry." A neighbor solved the problem very simply by lending them one camel so there would be a total of eighteen. It was easy now to divide the estate: one-half, nine camels, went to the eldest; one-third, six, went to the middle son; one-ninth, two, went to the youngest. Nine plus six is fifteen plus two equals seventeen. So, they divided the estate, returned the borrowed eighteenth camel to the neighbor, and all was well.

A point I'd like to draw from that neat story is that each of us probably has some sort of "camel" to at least loan to a fellow legislator to assist in solving some seemingly unsolvable problem or meeting some really difficult need.

My prayer this morning is that as the legislative session continues to unfold, each person here may find it in his or her heart to be that kind of a neighbor.
Amen.

Senator Hoffman led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
