With deepest respect for the religious traditions of all Alaskans, I offer this prayer:

Almighty and ever-living God, Creator of heaven and earth, and in whose image humankind was made: We thank you for the wonderful diversity of races and cultures in this state. Enrich our lives by ever-widening circles of fellowship, and show us the value in those who differ most from us, until our knowledge of your love is made perfect in our love for all your children. May our love be not words and sentiments only but actions which promote justice, contain mercy, and guard the dignity of every human being. We are reminded of the temptations and difficulties of this office. We stand in humility before the challenge of wielding such powers as have been given us. Upon this house we ask your special blessing this day – a blessing of peace, of reconciliation, of renewed sense of purpose, dignity, and grace that their every effort may be guided by an appeal to the best of the dreams each holds sacred and with care of the dreams of those who have given them a sacred trust. In thanksgiving for the great lights who have walked this way before us and for the sake of those who will come after, we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Crawford.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL
