O God, our Creator, we thank you for blessing us with this beautiful day. As we gather this morning make us mindful of the needs of the people of this state. Help us understand that many of the decisions made are about gifts that you have provided for the people of Alaska. Help us to decide wisely. The decisions made will affect the people of Alaska. Help us to represent wisely. As we do our work this week remind us that we are to do it honorably for the people of Alaska. Bless our families – those that are near to us today and those that are far away.
