ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE – SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Saturday

April 12, 2008

Eighty-ninth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Harris at 10:23 a.m.

Roll call showed 35 members present. Representatives Gara, Guttenberg, Nelson, Olson, and Ramras were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Coghill. Representative Roses moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Almighty God, we take this moment to pause and reflect before we begin the business of the day.

First, we are grateful for the land that we get to live in with the beauty of all the seasons and especially the wonder of change from winter to spring. As we each see in our minds the beauty of our own homes, we are glad in our hearts, and we anticipate being home again.

We are thankful for the privilege of serving our people and making the connection with the rest of the people in Alaska. We ask for your guidance today, for your peace to rule in our hearts and to help us do our best for the people of Alaska.

Thank you for the honor of working with each member here. I ask your special blessing of grace on Richard Foster and thank you for him being with us. Thank you for the bond that grows between all of us here. Thank you for Mary Nelson; we are glad to honor her. Lord, we beseech you to guide us with your omnipotent, providential hand today. I pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Keller.

Insert a new bill section to read:

** Sec. 2. AS 38.50 is amended by adding a new section to read:

Sec. 38.50.015. Access along fishing waterways. (a) The commissioner and the commissioner of fish and game jointly shall prepare and maintain a list that identifies land to or along fishing waterways where public access is or may in the future be impeded by private land ownership. The list must include at least two and not more than five meander miles along fishing waterways, and may identify land to be used for public access for fishing, hunting, or other recreational purposes. The list shall be prepared before December 1 of each year, except that the commissioner and the commissioner of fish and game are not required to prepare a new list if the existing list contains at least two meander miles of private land along fishing waterways.

(b) Before February 1 of each odd-numbered year, the commissioner, with the concurrence of the commissioner of fish and game, shall submit to the legislature a plan to acquire by easement, fee, or other interest, public access to or along fishing waterways through trade with or purchase from a willing landowner or landowners.

(c) An agreement for an easement that provides public access to a fishing waterway under this section may allow the owner of the land granting the easement to develop the land subject to the rights granted by the easement.

(d) The commissioner may close or restrict public access acquired under this section if necessary to protect habitat along a fishing waterway.

(e) The commissioner and the commissioner of fish and game shall consider land providing public access along Montana Creek upstream of the Parks Highway, and along Anchor River and Deep Creek on the Kenai Peninsula for inclusion in the plan under (b) of this section.

(f) The commissioner may not obtain a property interest in land under this section unless the commissioner has made not less than an equivalent acreage of state land available for disposal for private use under AS 38.05.050 in the same calendar year.

(g) In this section,

(1) "fishing waterway" means a waterway that contains wild sport fish or fish of a species, physical size, and abundance that may support a sport, commercial, personal use, or subsistence fishery;

(2) "meander mile" means a distance of one mile measured following the course of a waterway."
