

HOUSE JOURNAL

Ninetieth Day

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of Alaskans and all mankind, I offer these words.

I ask that we all be comfortable enough with our own faith to understand and respect the beliefs of all people. May Alaska's legislators, along with lawmakers and government officials around the world, find it in themselves to ride the fine line that separates what they believe from what is best for the people they affect, regardless of who they are, what they stand for, or where they live.

I also wish for safe travels for these members, their staffs, and their families. Thank you.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Kerttula.
