Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Green at 10:05 a.m.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Scott Williamson of Glacier Valley Baptist Church. Senator Wilken moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Our Father, you have revealed yourself as a God who loves justice, righteousness, and mercy. I pray for these men and women who are coming to the end of a busy week; thank you for their labor, their dedication, and their concern for their state.

Assist them to make decisions that are both just and fair to the people of Alaska. Guide them to uphold the highest ethical standards as they carry out their work. May there be no whisper of impropriety amongst them as they do their work.

I pray that this weekend will bring them an opportunity for rest. Refresh them physically, mentally, and spiritually.

Thank you for your abiding presence and for your watch care over our state and our nation.

I pray this in the name of Jesus Christ, who lives forevermore. Amen.

Senator Huggins led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
