One Hundred Ninth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Green at 11:10 a.m.

The roll showed seventeen members present. Senators Davis, Huggins, Kookesh were excused from a call of the Senate.

Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant.

*Jesus of Nazareth
Mark 10:43*

Righteous God,

How hard it is to remember the "servant" part of being a public servant.

Help these Senators never forget that they are accountable to the people and ultimately to you. Keep them from actions, public and private, which might bring reproach upon this Senate in the public's view for all we really have when we leave this place is our reputation.

Remind us all that a significant part of leadership is providing an example. May the conduct of this Senate show that holding public office is an honorable duty and calling.

Teach us all to serve well, how to solve problems, deal with our differences so that our living will be worthwhile.

As I pray in the name of him who came to serve the world. Amen.

Senator French led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Senator Stevens moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the one hundred eighth legislative day be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.
