ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

March 19, 2008

Sixty-fifth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Green at 11:09 a.m.

The roll showed twenty members present.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Tom Matthews of Douglas Island Bible Church. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Dear Lord:

Thank you for the power of prayer. Thank you that I can bring these requests before you in confidence that you hear and want to help us in our needs. We are told in your word that we have a high priest, Jesus Christ, who is touched by the feeling of our infirmities. He knows when we hurt, he knows when we have pain, he knows when we have joy. Thank you that he is making intercession for us to you Father. Thank you that we have an advocate.

Lord, I want to pray in behalf of the members of this Senate as they once again go into another session. Help them as it no doubt gets difficult to be away from their families. None of us stands alone, we rely greatly on our loved ones around us. Help these Senators to be given a special measure of your grace, during their separation from the ones they love. Help their loved ones as well in their absence. Strengthen them, enable them to carry on the tasks at home until once again these families are brought together.

With the great volume of work to be done, and the limited time to accomplish it, I pray that you would help the schedule today to go smoothly, and that much business would be accomplished. Again Lord, I pray that all decisions that come out of this gathering would be ones of fairness, justice and equity.

Thank you that I can lift this prayer before you today. In your beloved Son's name, Amen.

Senator Huggins led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
