ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE - FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Tuesday

April 12, 2011

Eighty-fifth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Chenault at 10:37 a.m.

Roll call showed 36 members present. Representatives Hawker, Herron, Holmes, and Joule were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Lynn. Representative P. Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Our Father in Heaven, help protect and give us a measure of thy wisdom to all leaders and legislators throughout America, and especially here in Alaska and in this chamber. Help us to remember "to whom much is given much is required."

Help us to be good role models to each other, and especially to children and young adults in a world that yearns for good role models. And please help us protect the most vulnerable among us in every precious stage of life.

We know we were freely elected to serve as representatives of our constituents in forty diverse districts to serve to the best of our ability for a short term of office – but let us not forget that before we filed for office, before we won election, and before we cast our first vote here in this chamber, you, almighty Father, gave us the eternal gift of life and the gift of free will.

And with that in mind, help all of us avoid any conflict of interest between your commandments and our political actions.

Please help us not to be too critical or too judgmental of those with whom we disagree. Help us to disagree without being disagreeable – because only you, Father, have the whole truth of anything. At the same time, let us not lose our anchor of faith or ignore thy moral compass in some misguided effort to curry political favor or to go along to get along or to be all things to all people. As the good book says, "Help us come reason together."

Please, Father God, help us and our constituents understand that every bill we consider is important to someone and every bill controversial to someone. We don't make perfect laws here because we are not perfect. Help us to cast every vote here in this House of Representatives with the good conscience thou hast given us. Help us to vote in accordance with what is right and good in the sight of you, almighty God.

Help us to understand it is our job here on earth to support worthy causes and cast heartfelt considered votes whatever the issue, whatever the political pressure, or whatever any personal political advantage or disadvantage. Help us to remember that however we vote, it is you – our Father in heaven – who is responsible for the results, whatever they may be.

Father, protect our exceptional nation and the state of Alaska. Protect our brave women and men in our armed forces, all of us here today, and our loved ones. All this and much much more, we ask in the name of the personal God we call in faith to be our own. And we all say: Amen or Ahmen, your choice.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Austerman.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Austerman moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 84th legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
