With consideration for the beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer.

Father, we humble ourselves before you as servants of the people of Alaska and as servants of you, and we seek your will on our lives and on this great state. Please grant us the wisdom you have promised to those who ask and the strength that you alone can give. Give us a love for the people we serve and a heart of joy as we move into these busy final days. Pour out a spirit of peace that passes all our understandings and a patience that endures through the most difficult of situations. May we show kindness to each other and may the goodness we possess emanate from our beings. Our faith in each other and in those we serve must not wain, and it is with gentleness with which we approach each issue. Help us focus our actions to benefit the citizens of our state. We will never understand how great your love for us is. We give ourselves humbly to you for the work you have entrusted to us. Grant us the wisdom to lead and the attitudes of servants. Bless us in all our endeavors, and through all we do may we give you praise. For if you are for us then who can be against us? In your name, I pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Costello.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Austerman moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 84th legislative day be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
