Dear Lord,

Today may we gather in unity and in purpose as friends and in remembrance of friends, most especially Representative Carl Gatto. May we, who are still here, be reminded of the brevity of life and the honor in living it fully to the end as Representative Gatto so steadfastly did. May we look beyond issues and any personal differences and see the blessings and the great privilege of coming together in a free environment on behalf of Alaskans throughout this great land. Today we offer music as we reflect upon these matters of the soul. Amen.
