ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE

Seventy-second Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Stevens at 11:00 a.m.

The roll showed nineteen members present. Senator McGuire was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Cadet Ryan Struck of The Salvation Army College for Officer Training. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

God, I thank you for the opportunity to come and pray for the leaders of the great state of Alaska. Thank you for providing a beautiful place for these men and women to work. I ask that you give each person personal strength and wisdom. I thank you for the individual gifts and talents of each person here. I pray that you help combine those individual talents so that they can best serve the people of Alaska. I pray that we be reminded that we work best when we focus more on what we have in common and less on our differences. I ask that you help this group of people work with a spirit of mutual respect that is based in our shared concern for the citizens of this state. Help them remain motivated by the common ground of gratitude that we belong to this great nation and that each leader here is privileged to call Alaska home. I pray for patience and persistence in every task set before the men and women here. I thank you for the blessings you have given to your people. I pray all of this in Jesus' name. Amen.
