ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE

TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE - SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

April 18, 2014

Eighty-eighth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Chenault at 12:10 p.m.

Roll call showed 37 members present. Representatives Costello, Gruenberg, and Johnson were absent and their presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Herron. Representative P. Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Mr. Speaker, usually it is a "good morning" to you. But today it is "Good Friday".

With the deepest respect of all religions and faith, I offer a brief prayer and two short stories on being humble.

Help us to praise rather than to criticize, to sympathize rather than to discourage, to build rather than to destroy, and to think of people at their best rather than their worst.

Being humble story number 1:

One summer day, a mosquito landed on the antler of a moose and just sat there for a long time. Just as the mosquito was about to fly off, he made a buzzing noise and asked the moose if he wanted to see him go. The moose replied, "I did not know that you were here, and I will not miss you when you are gone."

The moral of this story is:

When considering oneself as very important in one's own eyes, most times it is not the case in the eyes of one's neighbor.

Being humble story number 2:

We are born into this world in symbolic clothing with two pockets. The front pocket is filled with our neighbor's faults, and the back pocket is filled with our own faults.

The moral of the story:

We are often too quick to only see the faults of others, yet we are often too blind to see the faults of our own. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Guttenberg.
