With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer:

We give you thanks, O God, for giving us another day. We ask your blessing upon this legislature and upon all to whom the authority of government is given. The issues of these days and in coming months remain complicated and potentially divisive. Endow each member with wisdom and composure that productive policies and solutions might be reached for the benefit of our state.

Please send your spirit of peace upon those areas of our world where violence and conflict endure and threaten to multiply. May all your children learn to live in peace. And may all that is done within the people's house this day be for your greater honor and glory. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Nageak.
