Juneau, Alaska

Wednesday

November 4, 2015

Twelfth Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Chenault at 11:11 a.m.

Roll call showed 38 members present. Representative Stutes had been excused from a call of the House today until 2:30 p.m.

Representative Millett moved and asked unanimous consent that Representative Kito be excused from a call of the House today. There being no objection, it was so ordered, and his presence was noted later.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Pruitt. Representative Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Dear Lord, thank you for this beautiful day to serve you. We thank you for the incredible opportunities and resources you have given our state that give us a chance to be here right now. We would not have a need to meet and talk about a gasline or be a part of such a monumental project if it were not for the incredible natural resources you have entrusted to the people of this state.

As we look to close the book on this one piece of such an incredible project, we ask for wisdom going forward. The remaining steps gain in scope and weight as we continue down the path to completion. I ask for wisdom for each and every member of this body in the coming months and ask for your blessing on our governor and the members of his administration as they are tasked with working in the best interest of Alaskans to make this project come to fruition.

As we close out this session, keep everyone safe and give us good health as we head back to our homes and families, and give us opportunities for quality time with our families as we prepare for the very monumental year standing before us. Finally thank you for all of the people that made this possible, including the staff, the people of Juneau, and every family member back home. In your name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Josephson.
