

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

March 11, 2016

Fifty-third Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Meyer at 10:14 a.m.

The roll showed 19 members present. Senator Ellis was excused from a call of the Senate.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Reverend Dr. Phil Campbell, Northern Light United Church. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

It has been an honor to be with you this week. I thank each of you for your service to our state. When I was with you Wednesday I misidentified the location of the woman who took her life on Monday. I apologize for my error and any distress and confusion it caused. Today I pray for encouragement and perseverance for you, and as I do so, I invite you to observe this time in a manner in keeping with your own practice.

Gracious Creator, as mid-session weariness and discouragement threaten to descend, and the hope with which the session started has begun to wane, restore in this chamber a vision of promise. Encourage these lawmakers in their craft that they may find the energy to carry on and tap into renewed desire to serve all the people. Uphold them when they tire, and strengthen them for all the tasks that lie ahead. Rekindle a conviction that just and equitable solutions can be found to our state's many challenges.

And now, O God, I pray that the gift of this day will bring progress, and that the weekend that beckons will bring rest and renewal. Amen.

Senator Stevens led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Coghill moved and asked unanimous consent that the journals for the fifty-first and fifty-second legislative days be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.
