The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, the Reverend Dr. Douglas Dye of Chapel by the Lake Presbyterian Church. Representative Wilson moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Thank you for the invitation to pray for you. I invite you to bow your heads as I pray.

Gracious and loving God on this Presidents' Day, I pause to thank you for the gift of leaders who have guided our state and nation in the past. I thank you, God of the ages, that through the decades and centuries you have given us leaders of wisdom and courage who guided us towards freedom and liberty for all.

I thank you almighty God for the leaders of government who guide us today. I pray for our president, our governor, and especially for the Alaska State House of Representatives. Loving God, I pray that you would bless these servants with a spirit of grace for one another, wisdom to discern the best way through the challenges before them, and strength of body and mind to sustain them in the days ahead.

Heavenly Father, thank you for these men and women whom you have called to be servant leaders. Thank you for their dedication and the sacrifices they make to care for this great state of Alaska. Encourage and protect their families, as many are far from home. And as this day draws to a close and they take their rest, help them to know that you have walked with them and guided them.

I pray these things in the name of my Lord, Jesus. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Kawasaki.
