The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Representative Johnson. Representative Westlake moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer.

Almighty, Gracious and Merciful God, we give you thanks for giving us another day. Today we are grateful for your guidance and your presence in our lives. We humbly follow your lead and direction.

When our own decisions seem too difficult to navigate, help us to turn to the One who never slumbers or sleeps. When we are impatient for decisions, help us to wait upon you for the right way to go.

Help us to understand each other, to respect each other, to work together for the common good and reach across lines to be your hands and feet in a world that desperately needs you.

When times and situations seem uncertain, help us cling to the hope that we find in you. And in the words of Micah 6:8, help us to act justly, love kindness, and walk humbly with our God.

May all that is done today be for your greater honor and glory. We pray all of this in your mighty name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Rauscher.
