

HOUSE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTIETH LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Monday

April 2, 2018

Seventy-seventh Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 11:10 a.m.

Roll call showed 40 members present.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Student Rabbi Jeff Dreifus of Congregation Sukkat Shalom. Representative Ortiz moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer the following prayer:

The Jewish holiday of Passover, which we are celebrating this week, commemorates our ancestors' exodus from slavery. With the Egyptian army in close pursuit, the Israelites did not have enough time to bake bread for their journey. Instead of letting their dough rise, they hurriedly baked a flat, cracker-like bread called Matzah. To commemorate this, during Passover, Jews eat no leavened bread, eating only Matzah. Not only do we not eat bread, but traditionally we spend the days leading up to Passover cleaning our homes with a fine-tooth comb, ridding the house not only of bread, but of every last bread crumb.

Some people say this custom is simply the Jewish version of spring cleaning, but in fact it represents something much deeper. Throughout the year, we not only accumulate physical crumbs in our pantries and between our couch cushions, we also accumulate spiritual crumbs. We develop bad habits, we get distracted, we lose sight of what really matters. If we do it right, cleaning out our crumbs can be simply a physical manifestation of purifying our hearts and souls for the year ahead.

As you continue the important work of this Chamber, you may find a little spring cleaning goes a long way. There are always crumbs to be found, if only we take the time to look.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Talerico.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Tuck moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 74th, 75th, and 76th legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.
