ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTIETH LEGISLATURE

FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

March 10, 2017

Fifty-third Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Kelly at 10:26 a.m.

The roll showed twenty members present.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Tom Matthews, Douglas Island Bible Church. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent that the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Dear Lord:

This is the day that the Lord hath made, I will rejoice and be glad in it. Sometimes we can get so caught up in the business of our day to day world, that we forget that even our next breath, or our next day is a gift from you. Lord, when you finished forming the world around us, you sat back and said that it was good. I applaud that evaluation and give a hearty AMEN! It is good! Especially what we have to enjoy here in Alaska.

But, with that good, we recognize that there is also a stewardship that you have given us; a responsibility to manage the awesome gift of your creation. You don't have to go any further than the news on television or today's paper to realize there is pressure from many sides who would want to direct the decisions the legislators have to make. Lord I would ask you to give them the resolve to stand firm in the convictions that you give them. Give them the clarity to articulate what they believe, and direct them in the ways of righteousness, justice and equity.

As this session continues, help them to persevere, as this is only a season in their lives that will pass, but the decisions that are made will continue on for the State of Alaska.

I lift this prayer in the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Senator Gardner led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Certification

Senator Micciche moved and asked unanimous consent that the journals for the fifty-first and fifty-second legislative days be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Governor's transmittal letter dated March 9:

Dear President Kelly:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18, of the Alaska Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to an extension of my February 14, 2017 Declaration of Disaster Emergency.

This administration has been working as a coordinated team to identify the extent of drug abuse and overdose dangers facing our state. In recent years, opioid abuse has rapidly expanded across the state. This is a dangerous trend that affects our communities and the lives of many Alaskans. Drug overdose deaths are a serious public health concern, which warrants the designation of a public health disaster emergency. This emergency exists statewide and affects all levels of society.

Therefore, on February 14, 2017, I made a declaration of disaster emergency under AS 26.23.020 that authorized the Commissioner and the Chief Medical Officer of the Department of Health and Social Services to coordinate a response. This response includes establishing a statewide overdose response program and a statewide medical standing order allowing local and regional overdose response programs, healthcare officials, first responders, and the general public to have the ability to directly dispense and administer the lifesaving drug naloxone. Since the declaration, we have made significant progress in the distribution of resources to combat this epidemic, including kits containing opioid overdose drugs. By extending the declaration of emergency under AS 26.23.020, we continue to assure dispensation of opioid overdose resources under a statewide standing medical order.

This is only one part in fighting this battle and we must continue to seek all available tools to address this epidemic. Therefore, I submit this bill to extend the declaration of disaster emergency issued February 14, 2017 until February 14, 2018.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,

/s/

Bill Walker

Governor

was read the first time and referred to the Resources and Finance Committees.
