ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTY-FIRST LEGISLATURE
FIRST SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

April 26, 2019

One Hundred Second Day

Pursuant to adjournment the House was called to order by Speaker Edgmon at 11:15 a.m.

Roll call showed 37 members present. Representatives Jackson and Wool had been excused from a call of the House today.

Representative Thompson moved and asked unanimous consent that Representative Tarr be excused from a call of the House today. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

The invocation was offered by the Chaplain, Pastor Brian Ewing of Calvary Fellowship Church. Representative Shaw moved and asked unanimous consent that the invocation be spread on the journal. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Father, thank you that you are the one who is both incredibly powerful beyond our comprehension and infinitely gentle to the wounded and broken-hearted.

You, according to an ancient song, stitch together the burst hearted and wrap up their deeply carved wounds. The burst hearted and the wounded are very real and are out there on the streets of our cities, but they are also very real in here in this Chamber.

Would you enable us to be deeply honest with ourselves before you today. A great king in the middle of a scandal of titanic proportions once said, The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; A broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

And another great king who had gone insane with power and pride saw his hold on power crumble and lost everything only regaining it when he ultimately looked up from his insanity to you. In his own words saying, At the end of those days I ...lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me,...;

Father, enable us to lift up our eyes from our own petty power plays and pride and look to you. In our wounded brokenness let us first be changed by you and then empowered to effect a change in our districts. I ask this as one of your broken followers and in the authority of Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Representative Knopp.

CERTIFICATION OF THE JOURNAL

Representative Thompson moved and asked unanimous consent that the journal for the 100th and 101st legislative days be approved as certified by the Chief Clerk. There being no objection, it was so ordered.

Representative Wilson, Co-chair, moved and asked unanimous consent that Uniform Rule 23 be waived, so the Finance Committee may hear the following today:

SPONSOR SUBSTITUTE FOR HOUSE BILL NO. 20

"An Act relating to sexual assault; relating to the definitions of 'without consent' and 'consent'; relating to failure to report a violent crime; relating to sexual misconduct under the code of military justice; requiring law enforcement agencies to test sexual assault examination kits; requiring notification of completion of testing; relating to reports on untested sexual assault examination kits; and providing for an effective date."

Objection was heard and withdrawn. There being no further objection, it was so ordered.

SENSE OF THE HOUSE

The following Sense of the House was offered by Representative Carpenter:

"It is the sense of the House;
That on April 17, 2019, during Joint Legislative Session confirmation proceedings, unsubstantiated accusations made by certain members of the House defamed the personal character of several volunteer nominees on the floor of the House of Representatives. The members' actions deprived Alaskans of due process and any opportunity to offer a defense of their character and were an abuse of the privilege of legislative immunity. Therefore, these members' actions are hereby condemned as having undermined the dignity of the Legislature and resulted in a breach of trust with the people of the State of Alaska that must be restored."

Representative Carpenter moved that the Sense of the House be adopted.

The Speaker referred the Sense of the House to the Community & Regional Affairs Committee.

Representative Carpenter objected.

The House adjourned.
