Almighty God, my heavenly Father,

Thank you for the land we live in and the people we get to serve. We each bring a perspective of our duty and calling to this chamber to blend it the best we know how to serve this whole state. We often feel short on wisdom and answers as we work toward doing our part in leading in this policy world. We look to you for guidance, for help and for understanding to better serve our people.

I read in your word "...the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy." Grant us your help today, please.

I pray in the name of Jesus Christ my Lord.

Amen.

Senator Kiehl led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.
