

SENATE JOURNAL
ALASKA STATE LEGISLATURE
THIRTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE
SECOND SESSION

Juneau, Alaska

Friday

April 8, 2022

Eighty-first Day

Pursuant to adjournment the Senate was called to order by President Micciche at 10:36 a.m.

The roll showed sixteen members present. Senators Begich, Costello, Olson were excused from a call of the Senate. Senator Revak was absent.

The prayer was offered by the Chaplain, Reverend Gordon Blue, Holy Trinity Episcopal Church. Senator Hoffman moved and asked unanimous consent the prayer be spread. Without objection, it was so ordered.

On this day in 1896 Anne Ayres passed. She was an immigrant who established a new order for healing and education in this, her adopted land. With the deepest respect for the religious beliefs of all Alaskans, I offer this prayer.

God of justice and truth do not let this Senate close its eyes to the plight of the poor and neglected, the homeless and destitute, the old and the sick, the lonely and those who have none to care for them. Give them that vision and compassion with which you so richly endowed Anne Ayres, so they may assist those who labor tirelessly to heal others who are broken in body or spirit. God of mercy and grace, do let this Senate open its eyes to the pathways of healing and repair, helping to build effective institutions by example, capable of reclaiming lives for service, willing to contribute to public trust, and remembering the dignity of all, thereby turning present sorrow into joy. Amen.

Senator Reinbold led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Senator Hughes moved and asked unanimous consent Senator Revak be excused from a call of the Senate today. Without objection, Senator Revak was excused.

Certification

Senator Hughes moved and asked unanimous consent the journals for the seventy-ninth and eightieth legislative days be approved as certified by the Secretary. Without objection, it was so ordered.

Introduction and Reference of Senate Bills

SB 242

SENATE BILL NO. 242 BY THE SENATE RULES COMMITTEE
BY REQUEST OF THE GOVERNOR, entitled:

"An Act relating to exemptions for the purchase and sale of certain food products for home consumption
under the Alaska Food Freedom Act."

was read the first time and referred to the Health and Social Services and Finance Committees.

The following fiscal information was published today:
Fiscal Note No. 1, zero, Department of Environmental Conservation
Fiscal Note No. 2, indeterminate, Department of Natural Resources

Governor's transmittal letter dated April 6:

Dear President Micciche:

Under the authority of Article III, Section 18, of the Alaska
Constitution, I am transmitting a bill relating to the Alaska Food Freedom Act.

Alaska's food supply is fragile, with over ninety percent of the staples Alaskans use to feed their families being imported from out of state. The lack of a robust, homegrown food industry that is regionally diverse underscores the insecurity local communities and towns face. In order to build a strong economy, Alaska needs to develop its resources, including its valuable, Alaska-grown food.

This bill will allow a producer to sell homemade food products to an informed end consumer and to encourage the expansion of homemade food sales throughout the State. The legislation would codify existing cottage food regulations and raw fruit and vegetable exemptions. The bill also allows consumers to purchase meat pursuant to animal share agreements directly from ranchers.

If enacted, the Alaska Food Freedom Act will stimulate growth of cottage industries, promote food security for all Alaskans, and allow development of a true "farm to table" marketplace. The passage of this important measure will put food on the tables of Alaskans when they need it most.

I urge your prompt and favorable action on this measure.

Sincerely,

Mike Dunleavy

Governor

Consideration of the Calendar
