The governor of the Territory shall forthwith submit a certified copy of the constitution through the President of the United States to the Congress for approval, together with a statement of the votes cast thereon.

Section 14. When the people of the Territory ratify this constitution and it is approved by the duly constituted authority of the United States, the governor of the Territory shall, within thirty days after receipt of the official notification of such approval, issue a proclamation and take necessary measures to hold primary and general elections for all state elective offices provided for by this constitution.

Section 15. The primary election shall take place not less than forty nor more than ninety days after the proclamation by the governor of the Territory. The general election shall take place not less than ninety days after the primary election. The elections shall be Section 16. The officers to be elected at the first general election shall include two senators and one representative to serve in the Congress of the United States, unless senators and a representative have been previously elected and seated. One senator shall be elected for the long term and one senator for the short term, each term to expire on the third day of January in an odd-numbered year to be determined by authority of the United States. The term of the representative shall expire on the third day of January in the odd-numbered year immediately following his assuming office. If the first representative is elected in an even-numbered year to take office in that year, a representative shall be elected at the same time to fill the full term commencing on the third day of January of the following year, and the same person may be elected for both terms.

Section 17. The first governor and secretary of state shall hold office for a term beginning with the day on which they qualify and ending at noon on the first Monday in December of the even-numbered year following the next presidential election. This term shall count as a full term for purposes of determining eligibility for reelection only if it is four years or more in duration.

Section 18. The returns of the first general election shall be made, canvassed and certified in the manner prescribed by law. The governor of the Territory shall certify the results to the President of the United States.

Section 19. When the President of the United States issues a proclamation announcing the results of the election, and the State has been admitted into the Union, the officers elected and qualified shall assume office.

Section 20. The governor shall call a special session of the first state legislature within thirty days after the presidential proclamation unless a regular session of the legislature falls within that period. The special session shall not be limited as to duration.

Section 21. The first members of the judicial council shall, notwithstanding Section 8 of Article IV, be appointed for terms as follows: three attorney members for one, three and five years respectively, and three non-attorney members for two, four and six years respectively. The six members so appointed shall, in accordance with Section 5 of Article IV, submit to the governor nominations to fill the initial vacancies on the supreme court, including the office of chief justice. Once the chief justice is appointed, he shall assume his seat on the judicial council.

Section 22. Until the courts provided for in Article IV are organized, the courts, their jurisdiction and the judicial system shall remain as constituted on the date of admission unless otherwise provided by law.
When the state courts are organized, new actions shall be commenced and filed therein, and all causes, other than those under the jurisdiction of the United States, pending

1 or administrative proceedings shall continue 2 notwithstanding the change from territorial 3 to state government, and the State shall be 4 the legal successor to the Territory with 5 respect thereto.

Section 5. Pending adoption of measures
6 to carry out the provisions of the local govern­ 7 ment article of this constitution, cities, 8 school districts, health districts, public 9 utility districts and other local subdivisions 10 of government in Alaska shall continue to 11 exercise their powers and functions under 12 existing law but new cities, districts or 13 subdivisions shall be created only in accordance 14 with this constitution.

Section 6. All officers of the Territory, 16 or under its laws, on the date this constitution 17 takes effect shall continue to perform their 18 functions in a manner consistent with this 19 constitution until their offices or functions 20 are abolished or otherwise provided for in 21 accordance with this constitution or any laws 22 enacted pursuant thereto.

Section 7. Residence or other qualifica­ 24 tions prescribed by this constitution shall be Section 8. The seal of the territory, substituting the word "state" for "territory", shall be the seal of the state.

Section 9. The flag of the territory shall be the flag of the State.

Section 10. This constitution shall be submitted to the voters of Alaska for ratification or rejection at the territorial primary election to be held on the 24th day of April, 1956, to be conducted according to existing laws regulating primary elections so far as applicable.

Section 11. Each elector who offers to vote upon this constitution shall be given a ballot by the election judges which in substance shall contain the following proposition:

SHALL THE CONSTITUTION FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA DRAWN UP AND AGREED UPON BY THE ALASKA CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION BE ADOPTED?

The returns of this election shall be made to the Governor of Alaska and shall be canvassed substantially in the manner provided by law.
for territorial elections.

Section 12. If a majority of all the votes cast for and against the constitution shall be given for the constitution, then this document shall be deemed to be approved and accepted by the people of Alaska. The governor of Alaska shall forthwith submit a certified copy of the constitution through the President to the Congress for approval, together with a statement of the votes cast thereon.

Section 13. When the people of the Territory ratify this constitution and the same is approved by the duly constituted authority of the United States, the governor of the Territory shall, within 30 days after receipt of the official notification of such approval, issue a proclamation and take other steps required to hold a primary and general election, at which officers for all state elective offices provided for by this constitution shall be nominated and elected.

Section 14. The primary election shall take place not less than 40 nor more than 90 days after the proclamation of the Governor and the general election shall take place within 90 days after the primary election.

The elections provided for herein shall be governed by this constitution and, to the extent applicable, by territorial laws.

Section 15. The officers to be elected at the first general election shall include two senators and one representative to the Congress, unless senators and a representative have been previously elected and seated in the Congress of the United States. With respect to Congressional elections held in accordance with this section, one senator shall be elected for the "long term" and one senator for the "short term", each term to expire on the third day of January in an odd-numbered year to be determined by authority of the United States; the term of the representative shall expire on the third day of January in the odd-numbered year immediately following the taking of his seat, but if the first representative is elected in an even-numbered year to take office before the third day of January next, a representative to fill the full term commencing on said third day of January shall be elected simultaneously, and the same person may be elected to both terms.

Section 16. The first state legislators shall hold office for a term beginning with the day on which they are elected and qualified and ending at noon on the fourth Monday in January after the next general election, with senators elected for "four year" terms serving an additional two years, provided that if the first election occurs at any time during an even-numbered year, that election shall be deemed to be the general election for that year.

Section 17. The first governor and secretary of state shall hold office for a term beginning with the day on which they are elected and qualified and ending at noon on the first Monday in December of the even year following the next Presidential election. This term shall count as a full term for purposes of determining eligibility for re-election only if it is four years or more in duration.

Section 18. The returns of the first general election shall be made, canvassed and 1 certified in the manner prescribed by law.
2 The governor shall thereupon certify the 3 results to the President.
4 Section 19. Upon the issuance by the 5 President of a proclamation announcing the 6 results of said election, and the State 7 having been admitted into the Union, the 8 officers elected and qualified shall proceed 9 to discharge their duties.
10 Section 20. The governor shall convene 11 a special session of the first state legisla-12 ture, without limit as to duration, within 13 30 days after the President's proclamation 14 announcing the results of the elections, if a 15 regular session of the legislature would not 16 normally fall within that period.
17 Section 21. The first members of the 18 Judicial Council shall, notwithstanding 19 Section 8, Article _____, be appointed for 20 terms as follows: three attorney members 21 for one, three and five years respectively, and 22 three non-attorney members for two, four, and 23 six years respectively. The six members so 24 appointed shall submit to the governor 25 nominations to fill the initial vacancies. on the Supreme Court, including the office of Chief Justice. Once the Chief Justice is appointed, he shall assume his seat on the Judicial Council.

Section 22. Until Alaska is admitted as a state and the courts provided for in the Judicial Article are organized, the courts, jurisdiction and judicial system in the territory shall remain as constituted on date of admission until otherwise provided by law or this constitution. When the state courts are organized, new actions shall be commenced and filed therein, and all pending causes in the constituted courts on date of admission brought under or by virtue of territorial law shall be transferred to the proper state court, or agency, as though commenced, filed or lodged therein at the first instance, subject to applicable Acts of Congress.

Sections 24 and 25. (See Committee Proposal/17a, Sections 20 and 21.)

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORDINANCES AND TRANSITIONAL MEASURES

Hon. William A. Egan
President, Constitutional Convention

Dear Mr. President:

Your Committee on Ordinances submits herewith its proposed Schedule to the Constitution consisting of 17 sections.

Delegate proposals have been fully considered. Portions of Proposal No. 39 were adopted.

Delegate Proposal No. 46 was considered legislative.
Delegate Proposal No. 33 on fish traps was augmented and is submitted on a favorable vote 5 for and 4 against.
Delegate Proposal 26 on the State Capital was adopted in part. Delegate Proposals No. 11 and No. 24 were considered.
Committee Proposal No. 4 was considered and rejected in favor of other handling of the Capital in the Schedule.

Both as to fish traps and the capital, members of the Committee reserve the right to speak as they see fit when the matter comes to the convention floor.

The term of office for the first Governor and Secretary was adopted as proposed by the Executive Committee.
The TENNESSEE PLAN ORDINANCE will be submitted separately.

Respectfully submitted, effect shall continue to hold their offices and to perform the functions thereof in a manner not inconsistent with this Constitution, unless the functions of their offices are abolished or until their successors shall have qualified in accordance with this Constitution or any laws enacted pursuant thereto.

Section 6. The debts and liabilities of the Territory shall be assumed and paid by the State, and all debts owed to the Territory shall be collected by the State; all property and records of whatsoever nature owned or held by the territory, or any agency thereof, shall inure to the State.
Section 7. When this Constitution takes effect, all persons domiciled in Alaska, citizens of the United States, shall be citizens of the state for all purposes.

Requirements as to residence citizenship or other status or qualifications prescribed by this Constitution shall be satisfied by corresponding residence, citizenship or other status or qualifications under the Territory.

Section 8. Until otherwise provided by law, the seal of the territory shall be the seal of the state and the legislature shall prescribe seals for courts, officers or boards created by this Constitution, or by law.

The flag of the territory shall be the flag of the State.

Section 9. This Constitution shall be submitted to the voters of Alaska for ratification or rejection at the territorial primary election to be held on the 24th day of April, 1956, to be conducted according to existing laws regulating primary elections, so far as applicable, except as herein provided.

The returns of this election shall be made to the Governor of Alaska and shall be canvassed substantially in the manner provided by law for territorial elections.

Section 11. If a majority of all the votes cast for and against the Constitution shall be given for the Constitution, then this document shall be deemed to be approved and accepted by the people of Alaska, and shall take effect accordingly. The Governor of Alaska shall forthwith submit a certified copy of the Constitution through the President to the Congress for approval, together with a statement of the votes cast thereon.

Section 12. When the people of the Territory ratify this Constitution and the same is approved by the duly constituted authority of the United States admitting Alaska into the Union, the governor of the Territory shall, within 30 days after receipt of the official notification of such approval, issue a proclamation for a primary and general election, at which officers for all state elective offices provided for by this Constitution shall be nominated and elected; provided that the officers to be elected shall include two senators, and one representative to the Congress to be
First Elections

Section 13. Said primary election shall take place not less than 40 nor more than 90 days after said proclamation and the general election shall take place within 50 days after the primary election. All elections provided for in these ordinances shall be conducted, insofar as possible, under territorial laws relating to elections of members of the legislature and the returns thereof shall be made, canvassed and certified in the manner prescribed by law. The Governor shall thereupon certify the results thereof to the President.

Section 14. Upon the issuance by the President of a proclamation announcing the results of said election and the admission of this State to the Union, the officers elected and qualified shall proceed to exercise and discharge the duties of their respective offices.

Section 15. The first Governor and secretary of state shall hold office for a term beginning with the day on which they are elected and qualified and ending at noon on the first Monday in December of the even year following the next Presidential election. This term shall count as a full term for purposes of determining eligibility for reelection only if it is four years or more in duration.

Supplemental Provision

Ordinance to Abolish Fish Traps

Section 16. The Governor of the State and secretary of state shall certify the election of the senators and a representative to the Congress in the manner prescribed by law unless said senators and representatives have been otherwise seated by the Congress.

Section 17. The Territorial Legislature may enact laws necessary to supplement and make effective these ordinances in order to assure the functioning and orderly transfer of the Government until the officers provided for by this Constitution are elected and qualified, and until this Constitution takes effect.

Section 18. If this Constitution shall be accepted by the electors and a majority of all the votes cast for and against the ordinance to abolish fish traps shall be cast for adoption of the ordinance, then the following section shall be added to the Article entitled "General and Miscellaneous Provisions", and shall be part of this Constitution.

"Section ______. As a matter of urgency, to relieve economic distress among individual fishermen and those dependent upon them for a livelihood, to conserve the rapidly dwindling supply of salmon in Alaska, to make manifest the will of the people of Alaska at the earliest possible date, the use of fish traps for the taking of salmon for commercial purposes is hereby prohibited in all the waters of the state.
Violations of this section shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed $5,000.00 and by confiscation of the fish traps. The police power of the state shall be used to the extent necessary to enforce this section."

Section 19. Each qualified voter who offers to vote upon this Constitution shall be given a ballot by the election judges which in substance shall contain the following proposition:

FOR ABOLISHING FISH TRAPS

AGAINST ABOLISHING FISH TRAPS

Section 20. The first members of the Judicial Council shall, notwithstanding Section 8, Article _ _, be appointed for terms as follows: three attorney members for one, three and five years respectively, and three non-attorney members for two, four, and six years respectively. The six members so appointed shall submit to the Governor nominations to fill the initial vacancies on the Supreme Court, including the office of Chief Justice. Once the Chief Justice is appointed, he shall assume his seat on the Judicial Council.
