House Bill 240

"An Act requiring school districts to adopt a digital harassment and nonconsensual digital impersonation policy; and providing for an effective date."

Sectional Analysis

Version A

Section 1 Amends AS 14.33.200(a) to specify that each school district shall adopt policy that addresses and prohibits digital harassment and nonconsensual digital impersonation.

Section 2 Amends AS 14.33.200(c) to provide that any training materials provided must include those specifically related to digital harassment and nonconsensual digital impersonation.

Section 3 Amends AS 14.33.210 to add that each school district shall also include incidents of digital harassment and nonconsensual digital impersonation to the reporting of incidents of harassment, intimidation, and bullying.

Section 4 Amends AS 14.33.220 to add nonconsensual digital harassment to the list of actions for which the section does not prohibit discipline or adverse action against a person for false accusations.

Section 5 Amends AS 14.33.230 to include digital harassment and nonconsensual digital impersonation to the types of action for which a person is immune from damages arising from a failure to remedy a reported incident or for making the report.

Section 6 Amends AS 14.33.250 by adding the definition of nonconsensual digital impersonation.

Section 7 establishes an effective date of January 1, 2027.
