FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2025 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB101

Analysis

This bill amends various crimes relating to minors such as murder, enticement of a minor, sexual abuse of a minor and distribution of indecent material to minors to increase the age of the child victim to 18 years of age. This increase in age will capture additional conduct by broadening the scope of existing crimes. Because this is a significant change in the law, the amendments in this bill will likely result in additional case referrals, additional cases filed, and an increased need for training.

Between FY 2019 and FY 2023, the Criminal Division received an average of 258 case referrals per year for cases involving the sexual abuse of a minor. Because this is a significant change in the law and encompasses more crimes than just sexual abuse of a minor, it is assumed that the amendments in this bill will likely result in at least an additional 120 case referrals and additional cases filed regarding sexual abuse of a minor as well as other offenses amended by this bill. In addition to an increase in case referrals, the Criminal Division will need to develop training and create practice materials for prosecutors and law enforcement across the state.

In order to implement these amendments, the Criminal Division will need to add one attorney and one support staff in the Appeals section and four additional prosecutors and eight associated support staff across the state to handle the expected increase in cases. The prosecutors will be placed in the offices that receive the highest number of referrals for sexual abuse of a minor, the Office of Special Prosecution to assist with statewide case coverage and in: Anchorage, Palmer and Bethel. The remaining support staff will be placed in Anchorage, Palmer, and Bethel as well as in select offices around the state to assist with the increased workload.
