CS Senate Joint Resolution 30 STA N to G Version

“Expressing gratitude for the United States military and supporting increased defense readiness through infrastructure development and public-military partnerships.”

Explanation of Changes

Page 1, line 11

- Adds reference to partner operations in the Arctic and Indo-Pacific in describing Alaska’s strategic defense role.

- Expands language regarding recent military growth in Alaska by referring to mission growth in addition to personnel growth.

- Includes a specific reference to housing shortages at Eielson Air Force Base as an example of current infrastructure strain associated with military expansion.

Page 2, lines 24-27

- Expands the description of dual-use infrastructure to include utilities, power, communications, air and seaport development, lodging, aircraft hangars, roads, railways and adds language regarding infrastructure resilience and savings to the state.
- Additional changes minor and inconsequential for grammar and wording.
