FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2026 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB 307

Analysis

House Bill 307 would require a court to order additional visitation between a child and a person who has court-ordered visitation rights with the child, when the ordered visitation did not occur due to an investigation by the Office of Children's Services that was unsubstantiated. The bill specifies that the compensatory visitation must be of the same type and duration as the visitation that was missed, and must occur within two years of the order.

The court anticipates that HB 307 may lead to more hearings in child custody cases, but the change is not anticipated to be substantial. The court expects that it can implement this legislation without fiscal impact.
