7 Sec. 45.50.650. Social media accounts for minors. (a) A social media 8 platform shall prohibit an individual who is under 16 years of age and a resident of the 9 state from becoming an account holder on the social media platform.

10 (b) A social media platform shall terminate any account held by an account 11 holder who is under 16 years of age and a resident of the state, including accounts that 12 the social media platform treats or categorizes as belonging to an account holder who 13 is likely under 16 years of age for the purpose of targeted content or advertising. The 14 social media platform shall provide 90 days for the account holder to dispute the 15 termination. If the account holder fails to effectively dispute the termination, the social

1 media platform shall terminate the account upon expiration of the 90-day period.

2 (c) A social media platform shall allow an account holder who is under 16
3 years of age and a resident of the state to request to terminate the account. The social 4 media platform shall terminate the account within five business days after the request.

5 (d) A social media platform shall permanently delete all information held by 6 the social media platform relating to an account terminated under this section, unless 7 the social media platform is required by law to retain the information.

8 (e) A social media platform may not use the personal data of an account 9 holder who is under 18 years of age and a resident of the state in a personalized 10 recommendation system to display content on the platform. This subsection does not 11 prohibit a social media platform from displaying user-generated content that has been 12 selected, followed, or subscribed to by an account holder who is under 18 years of age 13 as long as the display of the content is based on a chronological format.

14 Sec. 45.50.660. Attorney general remedies; regulations. (a) In addition to 15 the remedies available to the attorney general under AS 45.50.471 - 45.50.561, a court 16 may award punitive damages if a social media platform has engaged in a pattern of 17 knowingly or recklessly violating AS 45.50.650.

18 (b) Notwithstanding AS 45.50.531 and 45.50.535, a private person may not 19 bring an action under AS 45.50.471 - 45.50.561 for a violation of AS 45.50.650.

21 (Administrative Procedure Act) to implement AS 45.50.650 - 45.50.690.

22 Sec. 45.50.670. Private cause of action. (a) If a social media platform
23 knowingly or recklessly violates AS 45.50.650, an account holder of the social media 24 platform who is under 18 years of age, a resident of the state, and harmed by the 25 violation may bring an action against the social media platform in superior court and 26 recover damages of up to $10,000.

27 (b) An action under this section must be brought on behalf of the account 28 holder by the account holder's parent or guardian.

29 (c) An action under this section must be brought within one year after the 30 account holder's parent or guardian discovered or reasonably should have discovered 31 the alleged violation.

1 (d) Nothing in this section prevents an account holder who brings an action
2 under this section from pursuing other remedies available to the account holder.
