The SRC is a comprehensive fitness facility with equipment, courts, track, group fitness, intramurals and a climbing wall. Patty Ice provides recreational ice skating sessions. Patty Pool provides lap swim sessions. Outdoor Adventures has discounted equipment rentals, trips and an outdoor rock/ice wall. Some extra programs have additional fees associated; consult DRAW staff for details. Anyone under the age of 18 using the SRC and its facilities must be accompanied by a parent or guardian whose minimum age is 21, unless they are a full-time UAF student. Call 907-474-5886 for more information.

Center for Student Engagement – Transformative Experience – 10% of the Consolidated fee

Supports Nanook traditions such as Starvation Gulch, Winter Carnival and SpringFest as well as student activities and student life programs that enhance the out-of-class experience of students and provides ongoing operational and capital funding for programs. For more information visit the CSE website (<https://www.uaf.edu/activities/>).

Libraries and Digital Resources – 9.5% of the Consolidated Fee

Supports students by providing the Elmer E. Rasmuson Library services such as research assistance and instruction, online/digital resources, subscriptions for databases and journals, and improvements to library materials/spaces (physical and virtual) used by students

Associated Students of UAF (ASUAF) – 6.5% (Total) of the Consolidated Fee

Student Government – 2% of the Consolidated Fee

The Associated Students of the University of Alaska Fairbanks (ASUAF) is your student government at UAF. ASUAF represents student voices to university leadership, the Board of Regents, and the Alaska Legislature. Beyond advocacy, ASUAF provides club funding, travel funding, legal consultations with an attorney, and events and programs throughout the year. Contact ASUAF at 907-474-7355 or visit the ASUAF website (<https://www.uaf.edu/asuaf/>).

Student Sustainability – 2 % of the Consolidated Fee

The UAF Office of Sustainability oversees student-run sustainability programs and initiatives. Key programs and services include the UAF Recycling pickups program, the Green Bikes Shop, the FreeStore, the Upcycle Annex Repair Cafe & Makerspace, the Nanook Grown Student Gardener Training Program, and the Wood Center Food Pantry. The Office also hosts events, houses internships, and assists students with sustainability-focused projects. Contact the Office of Sustainability at 907-474-5070 or visit the Office of Sustainability website (<https://www.uaf.edu/sustainability/>).

Student Media – 2.5 % of the Consolidated Fee

The Student Media department includes three distinct groups: The Sun Star, UAF's student newspaper; KSUA, the student radio station; and Concert Board, the student-managed live entertainment planning group. Each operates independently of the other, offering students a diverse and engaging media experience across a range of interests. To contact The Sun Star, email uaf-sunstar@alaska.edu or visit the Sun Star website (<https://www.uafsunstar.com/>). To contact KSUA, email uaf-ksua@alaska.edu or visit the KSUA website (<https://www.ksuaradio.com/>). To contact the Concert Board, email uaf-concertboard@alaska.edu.

Nanook Technology Services – Technology Support & Refresh – 6.5% of the Consolidated Fee

Supports technology initiatives including implementation of UAF's wireless network/access, delivering university-licensed software to all students, increasing the number of technology-enabled classrooms and computing spaces, and expanding and improving online and self-service environments.

Student Success Center – Tutoring, Advising, Student Support – 5.0% of the Consolidated Fee

The academic tutoring fee provides students with unlimited access to academic tutoring sessions across various subjects as well as unlimited, personalized academic support from trained peer coaches. These services are available throughout the year, in-person and online, to help students achieve their educational goals and excel in their studies.

Transportation – 4.0% of the Consolidated Fee

Supports the operation of shuttle buses that transport students and staff across campus and to various university facilities off-campus (in Fairbanks), including infrastructure supporting transportation services, snow removal, and lot maintenance at university sites and locations (in and beyond Fairbanks).

Graduate School – 2.0% of the Consolidated Fee

Supports enhancement of operational capacity, improves student services, ensures timely, high-quality academic processes, including thesis/dissertation review, orientation programming and professional development events. These funds support academic and advising support for graduate students and thesis completion fellowships, as well as the streamlining of academic processes. This allocated dedication ensures sustained investment in graduate education and aligns infrastructure funding with UAF's mission to foster high-quality, research-driven student outcomes.

Community & Technical College – Technology Support & Refresh – 2.0% of the Consolidated Fee

Supports technology initiatives including implementation of CTC's wireless network/access, delivering university-licensed software to all students, increasing the number of technology-enabled classrooms and computing spaces, and expanding and improving online and self-service environments.

General Studies/Undergraduate Research & Scholarly Activities – 0.5% of the Consolidated Fee

Supports URSA's Innovative Technology and Education (ITE) awards, providing funding for technology-related equipment and software used in student instruction, research, and scholarly activity.

Student Arts & Production Access – 0.5% of the Consolidated Fee

Supports free student admission to all Music Department concerts, Theatre & Film Department productions and film screenings, and Art Department gallery openings. In addition to free admission for students, fee revenue supports safety compliance, equipment/technology towards a modern student experience and the safe operation of the specialized spaces within the Fine Arts Complex. UAF students have free admission to approximately 50 events each academic year.

UA Infrastructure Fee

Cost: $19 per credit

Who pays: All students, including those enrolled in online or distance education courses

What's covered: The UA infrastructure fee is assessed to all students to address the capital investment for university facilities and infrastructure. This includes, but is not limited to, academic equipment, capital refresh, and support. It also covers rapidly rising costs in the maintenance and enhancement of university-wide technology infrastructure. The infrastructure supports physical and virtual operations, maintenance, and construction that modernize university facilities, student living and learning spaces, and technology systems that enhance the university-wide academic experience.

UAF Bookstore Bundle Fee

Cost: $21.50 per credit (beginning spring semester 2026)

Who pays: All students, including those enrolled in online or distance education courses

What's covered: UAF Bookstore Bundle is a course materials fulfillment program that ensures students have their required course materials on the first day of class. Administered by Barnes & Noble College in partnership with UAF, the program provides all required textbooks, lab manuals, access codes, and digital textbook versions to students.

Each semester, students will pay a flat rate of $21.50 per credit to cover the total cost of all REQUIRED materials for all of their classes for the semester. The program provides the delivery of required texts on or before the first day of class. Textbooks are issued on a rental basis, and must either be returned or purchased outright at the end of the term. (E-book subscriptions will automatically expire. No return
